Over 90% of parents at Emmons active in PTO

by GLORIA DAVIS

Emmons Grade School has established some kind of record with over 90 percent of the parents of students attending Emmons participating in PTO projects.

The Emmons Grade School PTO worked hard last year and raised $8,000 by holding a book fair, the annual all school Christmas party, an ice cream social, monthly hot dog days, monthly market days and the annual spring fashion show-dinner dance.

The money was then presented to the school and used to purchase a new merry-go-round for the playground, two complete computer systems, cheerleading uniforms, a microwave for the teachers' lounge and stage risers. Money was also given for special class projects and for the purchase of the eighth grade's graduation flowers.

The work of the PTO is the product of most of the parents of Emmons Grade School students with 97 percent of the parents participating in PTO projects and 90 percent volunteering to be room parents, work on PTO events and also class projects.

PTO officers elected for the 1987-88 school year are President Sue Koppa, Vice President Barbara Teegen, Sec. Marsha Rothermit and Treas. Marcia Bennecke.

Continue trial of 3 accused of stabbings

The trials of Daniel Fisher, Larry Brown and Alexander O'Connell, all of Twin Lakes, in connection with the Jan. 8 stabbing of Randy Kanckstedt of Antioch and Robert Baker of Lake Villa, have been continued until Monday, Nov. 16.

All three Twin Lakes residents are out on bond after being charged with stabbing the two Illinois men in their car on Johnsburg Rd. in Spring Grove, early in the morning after the five allegedly left a bar in Fox Lake.

Baker was critically injured in the incident but has since recovered.

The trials of the three accused have been continued several times.

Parade's date being eyed

Plans for a bigger and better Christmas celebration in the Village of Antioch are underway.

The big decision under discussion between the Parks Dept. and the Chamber is whether or not to change the annual Christmas Parade's date from Saturday after Thanksgiving to Friday to coordinate with the village's tree lighting and the arrival of Santa Claus.

For All Seasons" which will be held on Saturday and Sunday, Oct. 24 and 25.

A program will be presented by Jan Burdick of Merle Norman Cosmetic and Hair Studio. She will demonstrate her expertise in color theology and cosmetology for women of all ages.

Coffee and cake will be served by hostesses Evelyn Freund, Alberta Petroski, Marge Sepultis, Betty Sheehan and Cathy Taylor.

Burglars take 2 safes from Kentucky Fried Chicken

The Kentucky Fried Chicken on Rte. 173 in Antioch was burglarized sometime between closing time, 11:30 p.m., on Saturday and opening time, 9 a.m. on Sunday.

According to Antioch Police Lt. Tom Fisher, the thieves got away with two safes and an undetermined amount of money.

Police found that the drive-up window was left open but they have as yet not determined how the thieves gained entry to the fast food restaurant.

The burglary is being investigated by the Antioch Police Dept.

Big Brothers, Sisters, need minority volunteers

Eight-year-old Danielle and five-year-old Dorothy are sisters in a single-parent family in the Eastern part of Lake County waiting for more minority women to apply to be volunteers with Big Brothers/Big Sisters of Lake County. Each child wants and needs the support of a Big Sister.

Several fires in the girls' home have weakened their security and destroyed many personal belongings. More tragically for the girls, Danielle's twin brother died in one of the fires.

"Losing a child is a mother's worst nightmare," said the girls' mother. "Danielle's birthday is never a joyous occasion for any of us. She has never had a party because the day brings back so many memories."

The emotional stress produced by the death of a child along with limited financial resources and the normal day-to-day pressures make it very difficult for their mom to give individual attention to her children.

"They need to be kids, experience the carefree times that other kids enjoy. Big Sisters will provide a relaxed, pleasurable time out for the girls as well as giving mom some precious time to herself," explained Saralynn Reedy, Executive Director of Big Brothers/Big Sisters of Lake County.

For three to five hours a week for at least a year, a Big Brothers/Big Sisters offers to share a one-to-one companionship to a waiting child.

Both Dorothy and Danielle are very enthused about having their own very special friend.

To be continued?

When we first opened our Maternity Center—nearly three decades ago—the only people involved in the birth of a new baby were the mother, her doctor and our specialized staff. But times have changed. And since then, we've helped many newborns . . . and many new birthing options . . . come to life.

But while we continue to grow with the times by offering the latest, most up-to-date birthing plans and obstetric services available, some things will never change.

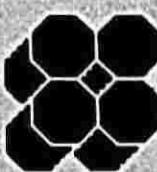

We'll always take the time to mother every baby, baby every mother . . . and pamper the rest of the family, too. We offer special classes and support programs for mothers, fathers, siblings, even grandparents—on all aspects of the birth experience.

We also have refresher courses—for the many families who come back to us again.

And again.

Agency seeks parents

The Family Counseling Clinic in Grayslake is seeking contact with persons who placed a child for adoption.

through the agency between 1970 and 1975.

An Illinois law allows adopted children to learn, upon reaching adulthood, the identity of their birth parent if he or she wishes to do so, but only if the natural parent has given written permission to release that information.

In 1975, Family Counseling Clinic began discussing regarding future release of identifying information with birthparents.

Birthparents who placed a child through Family Counseling Clinic since 1975 are also invited to contact the agency if they wish to change the decision they made at the time. Contact Sandra Arbit, (312)223-8107, to make wishes known.

ACHS uses grant to fight drugs

As a result of the Drug Free Schools and Communities Act of 1986, the Antioch High School guidance department has received a $3,600 grant to be used to expand the drug education program at the high school.

Head of the guidance department, Tim Noonan and counselor Cathy Cratty are in charge of the program.

The grant will be used to purchase learning materials, train additional staff and organize a support group to aid students that return to school after going through a drug rehabilitation program.

Any students needing to undergo drug rehabilitation can also draw from the funds for that reason if they need to.

Alateen, a chapter of Alcohol Anonymous, geared to help wives, children and friends of people involved in serious substance abuse, will continue to hold meetings at the high school this year.

Plans are to add at least three group session series to the existing program which is slated for one-eight week group session.

Printed information will be given to those participating and the students will exchange ideas concerning the use of drugs and ways to combat that use.

Homeowners detail to court McManus's transactions

A Grayslake resident testified during a civil court hearing Friday regarding his dealings with Thomas McManus, founder of Great America Homes in Vernon Hills.

Robert Needles told the court he and his wife, Susan gave Great America Homes $11,650 in checks for a down-payment, hoping for a home in McManus' proposed subdivision in Warren Twp.

Lake County Associate Judge Stephen Walter is presiding over the hearing. Throughout the week, persons hoping to buy homes in Gagewood Estates or Evergreen subdivisions told of their loss of money. McManus has been accused of swindling 64 Lake County residents. The attorney general's office has filed suit against the developer.

Checks signed by Needles to the Vernon Hills real estate firm were entered as evidence.

Needles said he sold his Round Lake Park home in hopes of buying a home in McManus' Evergreen subdivision. Needles, who works at Baxter, said he was offered 9.75 percent financing. Originally, Needles was told that the Gagewood project on Gages Lake Rd. was sold out but that his name would be put on a waiting list. Needles was offered a home in Gagewood, but elected to seek a home in the Evergreen subdivision instead.

"We talked about the differences in the new subdivision," Needles said of one meeting with Great America Homes officials.

On June 9, Needles and his wife met with McManus to select a lot and give McManus a $500 downpayment. Later that month, Needles discussed the financing for the home.

Under questioning, Needles said he did not know that the money given to Great America Homes would go towards the businesses' operation, that a plat had not been filed or a requirement for a construction loan. All of those factors, if he had known about them, would have influenced his decision.

Earlier in the week, McManus took the stand in his own defense. He blamed, in part, negative press coverage for his woes.

Also testifying were employees of Great America Homes.

ACHS gets new steel roof

Antioch High School's roof is still under repair. The reroofing is being done by Ras Mussen Steel.

According to ACHS business manager, Ken Wierschem, the placing of a steel roof over the leaking existing one should solve the problem created when puddles form on a flat roof such as the one at ACHS.

A layer of insulation has been placed on the existing roof before the pitched steel roof is laid on top.

Indy race car to be top prize at Scout event

After Antioch's Boy Scouts of America Troop 92 closes out its 27th annual spaghetti dinner on Oct. 18 at the Moose Lodge, the troop will conclude the day with its most exciting awarding of prizes ever.

First prize is a Pennzoil Indy Racer that was donated by Mike Sexton, owner of Antioch Auto Parts.

This bright yellow, sleek little car is guaranteed to feed the fantasies of youth and adults of all ages. Currently, the car is on display at Antioch Auto Parts, and will be displayed at other stores on weekends prior to the giveaway.

Other highly attractive prizes at the spaghetti dinner include an automobile sun roof, donated and installed by Lakeland Automotive of Lake Villa, Jim Ratajczyk, owner.

Third and fourth prizes are $50 savings bonds from State Bank of Antioch. Fifth prize is a one ounce Silver Eagle Commemorative Coin donated by First National Bank of Antioch.

Many, many other prizes will be given away during and after the dinner.

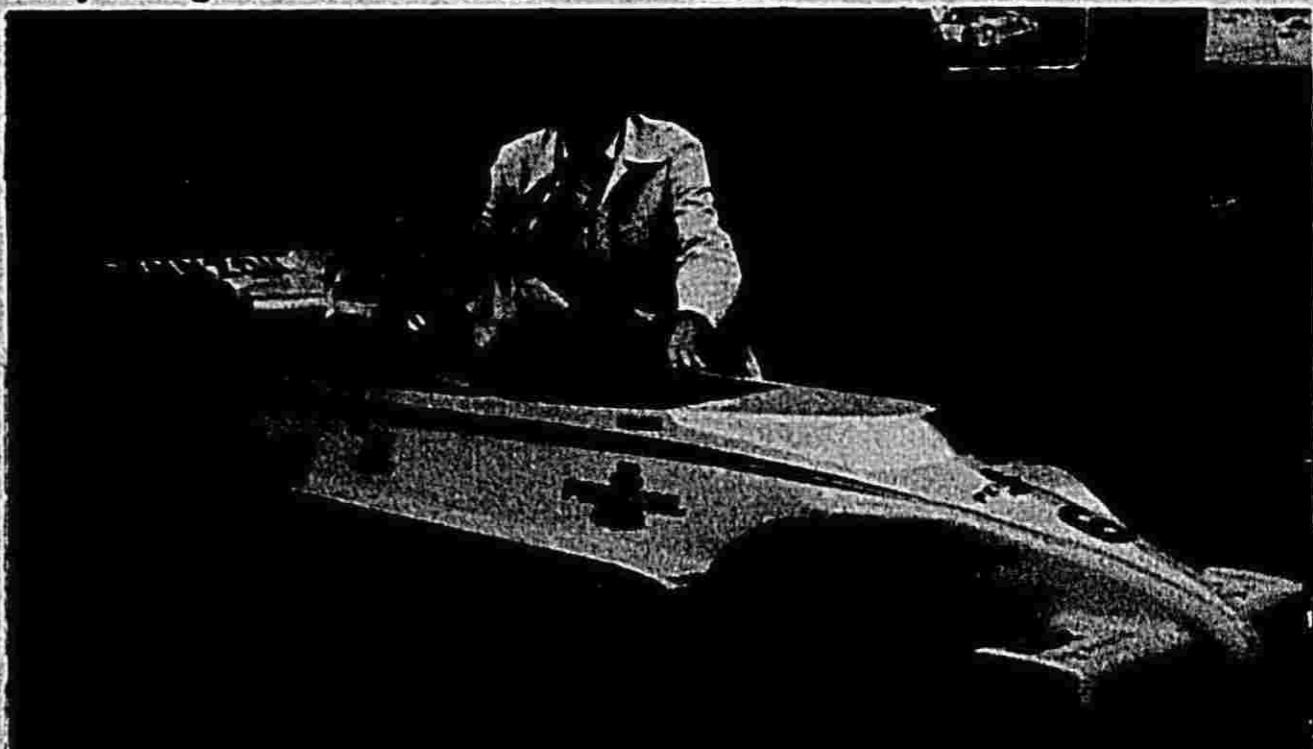

Troop 92's 27th annual spaghetti dinner will begin at noon and end at 7 p.m. Best seating times are from noon to 4 p.m. Donation for the all-you-can-eat dinner is $3.50, with children under six years of age eating for free.

State grant buys math, science tools

Antioch High School's math and science departments have two new Apple II GS computers with printers, plus a viewer which projects the image on the computer screen onto the classrooms movie screen for the entire class to see.

The math department also has two new overhead projectors and the science department has a new digital pH meter, a spectrophotometer, two microscope video cameras and monitors and an electronic balance.

This new equipment was purchased with a $13,000 grant from the State of Illinois.

TWENTY YEARS AGO: August 24, 1967

Over 150 packages were sent the Antioch men fighting in Vietnam by members of Project Vietnam.

Sharon Simon, Justine Lubkeman and Karen Phillips caused an uproar at the annual rescue squad golf outing with their mini-skirts.

John Teresi and Carl Seeman were the big cutups on the fourth hole of George Diamond's.

The Gutowski family held a big family get together.

The Antioch Sequoits gridders blanked Lake Zurich, 12-0.

Donna McHanes, Judy Wells, Cheryl Pincombe, Darlene Wieghart, Maureen Bates, Barbara Polsgrove, Patti Wimbs, and Terri Lindholm were inducted into offices of Antioch Assembly 23 Order of the Rainbow.

Pediatrician Dr. Charles Solar predicted a mild winter and frequent snows predicated on his mushroom crop.

TEN YEARS AGO: September 28, 1977

Joe Hunley awarded best actress in a musical award to Mary Beth LaKome for her portrayal of Eliza Doolittle in PM&L's production of "My Fair Lady."

Harry G. Robbin, Republican candidate for Lake County Sheriff, was endorsed by the Antioch Republican Club.

Bill Anderson was president of the Antioch Jaycees.

Aileen Biel received the Purple Heart Award at the PM&L banquet as outgoing president for her unerring championship quaecum sunt verae, whatsoever things are true.

In a phone conversation with Chicago radio personality Wally Philips, Ken Nelson of the Shoe Box donated tube socks to the unfortunate European soccer player that had his luggage stolen. Philips, who was familiar with the area, asked about the progress of the Antioch Sequoits by name.

Rittenhouse and Embree Lumber and manager Bus Scichowski, held its third annual vacation party, awarding free vacations to lucky winners.

Eckert Construction and the First National Bank won the Village of Antioch softball championship.

The Antioch Sequoits gridders bowed to mighty Warren, 14-6.

Buoys and Belles square dance

A "Harvest Moon" square dance will be hosted by Buoys and Belles Square Dance Club on Friday, Oct. 2, at First United Methodist Church Fellowship Hall, 128 N. Utica, Waukegan. A rounds workshop will be held at 8 p.m., and caller Al Hallgren will cue the squares from 8:30 to 11 p.m. All modern western square dancers are invited. Refreshments will be served.

ACHS schedules concert

The Antioch High School Fine Arts Dept. presents its fall choral concert, "Song and Dance," at 7:30 p.m. on Thursday, Oct. 8, in the auditorium.

The fall concert will feature the Acappella Choir, the Madrigals and the Heritage Dance Co. from Libertyville.

A variety of sea chanteys, folk songs, spirituals and classical pieces will be offered by the choir and the dance company will perform jazz, tap and ballet selections to the music of Tchaikovsky's "Nutcracker Suite" and Duke Ellington.

Come and see what the Antioch Fine Arts Dept. has to offer this year. Tickets are available at the door or from choir students. Price of adult admission is $2; student admission is $1.

Help for stress

The Lake County Health Dept. offers Coordinated Area Treatment Services (C.A.T.S.) at its Northeast Satellite facility in Zion. Walk-in and telephone crisis and referrals are provided for persons experiencing emotional stress. Short-term residential care and case management is also offered. There is no charge for these services. Walk-in crisis intervention is available 24 hours a day. For telephone crisis intervention, call (312) 360-6725 on weekdays and (312) 872-4242 on weekday evenings and weekends. The residential care and case management telephone number is (312) 872-4243.

Church to install brand new pastor, Meltzer

Millburn Congregational United Church of Christ on Hwy. 45 at Grass Lake Rd., will install their new pastor, Rev. Paul R. Meltzer, Sunday, Oct. 4 at 4 p.m.

A special musical prelude by the "Brassworks" will begin at 3:45 p.m. Many area clergy as well as UCC Conference Ministers will be assisting in the service which will take place in the church sanctuary.

Rev. Meltzer, his wife Yvonne, and their two children come to Millburn from Hamilton, Ohio, where he had been pastor of Faith UCC since 1981.

He has served churches in Toronto, Canada and Rock Falls, Ill. A graduate of Yale University Divinity School, he had served on numerous denominational boards, committees and civic agencies, and had worked extensively as a consultant with local churches in evaluation of Christian education programs and curriculum selection.

Following the Installation Service, the congregation will welcome the Meltzer family with a pot luck dinner in Lauren Hall. Those planning to attend the dinner should call the church office at (312) 356-5237.

AARP plans to brown-bag it

The Antioch Chapter 387 of the American Assn. of Retired Persons will meet Tuesday, Oct. 13, at the Antioch Center, 817 Holbek Dr.

President Charles Youlden will call the business meeting to order at 10:30 a.m., followed by a brown bag lunch at noon. There is a charge of 50 cents for cake and coffee or tea. New members are welcome.

A white elephant sale and prize give-away will be held at this meeting. Bring all articles to be donated to the sale. The committee in charge of this event are Jean Snyder, Phyllis Mengler, and Irene Lingo.

Coaches have new programs

The Antioch Community High School Athletic Dept. in order to meet the needs of its student-athletes, has initiated two new programs for its coaching staff.

First, on Sept. 17, the entire coaching staff attended a CPR certification class at the high school.

Head wrestling coach and certified CPR instructor Ted DeRousse, with the help of other certified instructors on the staff, conducted the class. From now on, at the beginning of each school year, the coaching staff will take a CPR recertification course.

On Tuesday, Sept. 22, the Antioch coaching staff attended a first aid clinic presented by school nurse Anne Thomas and athletic trainer Norm Hahn.

The clinic included such topics as recognizing injuries, first aid for the particular injury, rehabilitation, trainer and nurse responsibilities, and taping to prevent injuries. This, too, will be an annual meeting.

YWCA offers childcare training

The YWCA of Lake County has started a support group for people who are currently providing child care services in their homes. The purpose of this group is to provide information on child care issues and an information exchange between providers. The YWCA is also offering a series of Daycare Training Seminars. Sessions will be held for four weeks on Tuesday nights, from 7 to 9 p.m. The seminars will consist of topics on daycare issues, including parent provider relations, play activities and storytelling for infants and toddlers, and business concerns of a daycare home. The seminar is open to people interested in doing childcare, current childcare providers and parents interested in information for their own children. Call Arlette at the YWCA for information.

Charge 2 with theft, forgery

A purse, containing a wallet and other articles, was stolen from a woman at the Antioch Bowl at 7 p.m. on Sept. 19.

At 7:30 p.m. a check from the woman's check book was cashed at the Round Lake Jewel Store.

Acting on a tip, the Antioch Police questioned John Mangardo, 21, Antioch, and James Geyer, 21, Lindenhurst, about the theft and forgery of the check.

The Round Lake Police have charged the two with forgery and the Antioch Police have charged them with theft. Both are awaiting preliminary hearings.

The NFL may be on strike relegating football fans to other pursuits, but football is alive and well in Antioch. The Antioch Sequoits got back on the winning track with their 13-7 weekend win over Zion-Benton, and the Antioch Viking organization played tremendous ball shutting Mundelein out in two games.

Linesmen Aaron Crippen, guard and Cory Eibl, tackle were cited for outstanding line play.

Next week the Vikings travel to Grant High School to play Fox Lake under the lights on Saturday, Oct. 3. The Heavyweight team will play at 6:15 p.m. with the Lightweight game immediately following. Come out and watch!

In the cheerleading competition, 40 girls from grades four to seven Upcoming events in Antioch have something for everyone. PM & L's "Music Man" will run for one more weekend with performances at 8 p.m., Friday, Oct. 2 and Saturday, Oct. 3. There will be a matinee at 2:30 p.m., Sunday, Oct. 4 to close the show. Remember the reservations number is (312) 395-3055.

The Antioch Chapter of Women's Aglow will hold its meeting 7:30 p.m., Tuesday, Oct. 6 at the State Bank of Antioch, 440 Lake St. Special speaker will be Vickie Haverkamp from Baudette, Minn.

A.C.H.S. holds its annual "Back to School Night," 7:30 p.m., Oct. 6, jointly sponsored by the board of education and the PTC. Come meet your child's teachers and counselors.

TOPS IL Chapter 328 of Antioch will host an open house at 7 p.m., Wednesday, Oct. 7 at Antioch Grade School, 817 Main St. This group has been in operation for the past 23 years in our area. All are invited to come out and attend.

The craft sales are coming! The holidays can't be far behind! Country Cousins will hold a one-day Fall Craft Show 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., Saturday, Oct. 10 at the Antioch Scout House, 741 Main St.

There will be holiday decorations for Halloween as well as Christmas, Indian beadwork, English smocking, tole painting, woodworking, ceramics, cross-stitch, quilted items, and personalized knit hats among the many items for purchase. Come and start your Christmas shopping.

News & Notes

The Heavyweight Team won 32-0 with two TDs from fullback Jeff Fogel and two TDs from tailback Tim Lehn. Brother Tom Lehn scored another TD on a two-yard quarterback sneak. Kicker Nate Ovitt made two points on an after TD kick.

Offensive honors go to tightened David Nolte who caught a pass and ran 30-yd. to set up a TD; tailback Tim Lehn for an outstanding day's running; and center Brian Smith and guard Nate Ovitt for outstanding game offense.

Defensive honors go to guard Mike Stahmer, guard Chris Green, tackle Scott Jones, and cornerbacks. Matt Beattie and Jason Ferris.

The Lightweight Team also shutout Mundelein 12-0. End Jason Cardi and halfback Mike Welsh each ran in for a TD.

Defensively, several fumble recoveries were made with linebacker Brian Grasser getting two and linebacker Mike Welsh one. Interceptions were made by safety Jason Cardi and cornerback Mark Plonka.

Scouts to join lock-in

On Oct. 16-17 at the Millburn Congregational United Church of Christ (corner of Grass Lake Rd. and Rte. 45) all girls in fourth, fifth and sixth grades in Antioch schools can join in on the Girl Scout Junior Lock-In.

This event is also for non-member Girl Scouts. They will be able to spend a night with the other girls who will be doing double dutch, group juggling, learning the effects of smoking, drugs and alcohol.

They will also be taking a values quiz, making a gift for someone at home, exercising and doing food tests. Sign up early, space is limited. Any questions call Sue Cramer at (312) 395-6486.

Woman's Club donates

New law to force owners to confine vicious dogs

Owners of any dog that has been found to be vicious will now have to keep their pet confined, under legislation sponsored by State Sen. Adeline Geo-Karis (R-Zion) and signed into law by Gov. Thompson.

Sen. Geo-Karis said that the measure, HB 1500, would make it illegal to keep a vicious dog, unless the animal is kept in an enclosure or on a run line. The measure would be applicable to any dog that has been found to be vicious. HB 1500 was sponsored in the House of Representatives by Rep. Robert W. Churchill (R-Antioch).

Sen. Geo-Karis cited a recent incident in her hometown as evidence for need of stricter laws.

"In Zion there was an incident recently where two pit bull terriers attacked an animal warden and a third attacked a mail carrier. Both attacks occurred in the same day, all three animals were running loose and all three had to be shot before they seriously hurt or even killed someone," said Sen. Geo-Karis. "Any dog owner that trains his or her pet to be vicious and attack people had better keep that animal penned up. In order to protect the public, we simply cannot give a savage dog a second chance."

"I'm not on a crusade against dogs," explained Sen. Geo-Karis. "As a matter of fact, I own a dog myself. Even though my dog is not vicious, I still don't let him run loose because you can never tell when you might lose control of your pet. I would hope that other dog owners feel the same way."

If an owner is found not complying with the law, his or her dog could be impounded or destroyed, said Geo-Karis.

Arrives for duty

medical and surgical treatment of the foot and ankle

FEET FIRST--Plan your exercise gear from the bottom up

Dr. Lee M. Tisa, a practicing podiatrist in Antioch and Waukegan states that one of the smartest moves you can make in any fitness activity is to equip yourself with the very best shoes for your sport. Walking, jogging, aerobic dancing and racquet sports in particular require shoes especially designed to protect the feet against very specific types of stress. Wearing the same footgear for more than one sport, even if you're only a weekend athlete, is just asking for injury.

How do you choose from among the enormous array of athletic shoes on the market? First, look for specific features. WALKING SHOES, for instance, should have thick, rounded heels with at least one-half inch of lift in them to cushion against the shock of impact. Because jogging transfers twice your body weight directly to the heel each time you hit the ground, JOGGING SHOES must provide both ample cushioning and adequate support to the heel. Look for a shoe with a firm heel counter (that's the part of the shoe that wraps around the back of your heel), good arch supports and a fair amount of flexibility. Unlike walkers or joggers, aerobic dancers tend to come down hardest on the front of the foot, so a good pair of AEROBIC SHOES will be flexible around the ball of the foot and offer extra protection at the toe. COURT SHOES have to be able to support the foot through side-to-side movements and many changes of direction; they need to be flat so you don't "fall off" the shoe to one side or the other.

In choosing any athletic shoe, allow more room in the toe box than you would in ordinary street shoes; every time the foot hits the ground in a running or jumping movement, or even in brisk walking, the toes spread out to stabilize your landing, requiring as much as an extra half inch in length. Finally, don't skimp on quality; athletic shoes can be expensive, but you nearly always get what you pay for. Low-priced sneakers are not likely to offer the kind of protection or the kind of fit that you need.

Working to curb arson

In Lake County in 1986, arson was the cause of 106 fires. We find this startling. Despite being served by some of the best local fire departments in the nation, every community is hard-pressed to protect itself against arson, frequently called America's fastest growing crime. Experts say the top causes of arson are vandalism, revenge and profit.

A report on arson, as well as other causes of fire, was prepared by Kemper Insurance headquartered in Long Grove in conjunction with National Fire Prevention Week, Oct. 4-10. Even as perplexing as it is, Kemper has statistical evidence showing that arson can be reduced by community arson-control groups and on-site investigations.

Ideally, every community should have a coalition of private citizens and law enforcement groups, fire departments and insurance investigators working together to help educate the public. Heightened awareness should curb vandals and profiteers.

In our opinion, a big step forward could be taken if more police departments became intimately involved in the network against arson. Fire investigators have become extremely proficient at identifying arson. All too often, though, law enforcement officials are reluctant to root out culprits. This is difficult to understand.

In its statistical report, Kemper also found that woodburning stoves are responsible for thousands of fires every year. In 1986 in Lake County, heating in general ignited 112 blazes.

With a resource like the giant Kemper company close at hand, this locality should have model anti-arson programs. That's a worthwhile goal for the coming year. Hopefully, Kemper's 1988 report will attest to this.

Time capsule being opened

Local history will come alive as the Ivanhoe Congregational Church initiates a year-long observance of its 150th anniversary Saturday and Sunday, Oct. 10 and 11.

Lake County was just beginning to be settled by the white man when a group of pioneers, most of them hailing from the New England states, banded together in 1838 to hold church services. This beginning marks Ivanhoe Congregational as the county's oldest church.

True to their Yankee heritage, the early settlers organized as Congregationalists. The house of worship they built in 1865 located on Rte. 176 still is in use and stands as one of the county's landmarks. Founders of the Protestant denomination chose the highest plot of ground they could find in a central location and also established a cemetery nearby.

Worshippers came on foot and by horse and wagon from a vast area of the county. Ivanhoe Congregational Church was a regional church for a number of years and even to this day is not considered a neighborhood church, its membership still being drawn from a broad area taking in most of central Lake County.

Programs of interest to the public are being arranged for the kick-off celebration and next spring. Throughout the coming year, church members will heighten their awareness and involvement in specific projects. One colorful event planned is an old-fashioned service when members will don attire of the mid-1800's and the Rev. Wayne Nowack, pastor, will preach in early Congregational style.

The Ivanhoe Congregational Church anniversary is more than a religious event. The celebration will be like opening a time capsule. We join with friends of Ivanhoe Congregational in congratulations and look forward to an interesting year.

Larger type, better service

Take a second look at what you're reading. We hope you notice the type is larger. The type size used for news articles was enlarged last week to make reading easier and faster.

Your local hometown newspaper has been changing at a breathless pace of late, every change designed with doing a better job for you in mind. We hope you're enjoying the added color, our modernized graphics and most of all, the expanded local news coverage.

For those of you who keep tabs on newspaper typography and printing graphics, our former body type, News No. 8, was changed to News No. 9. We are setting body type in 9 point on a 10 point shoulder. We dropped Futura medium for headlines in favor of Bodoni medium.

Just by coincidence, the spruced-up type dress and overall new look came on the eve of National Newspaper Week being observed Oct. 4-10. We've always felt that the best way to observe National Newspaper Week was working harder than ever to please you and publish the best newspaper of which we are capable.

This year's slogan is, "People Serving People." We're always open to your thoughts on how we can serve you better.

Letters To The Editor

No Sunday games

Editor:

Being a fan of football and believing in the character and discipline it develops, I like to encourage participation.

I'm sad to see the move in Antioch's Viking football league to schedule games on Sundays. This encroachment into the time for Sunday School and worship is harmful to the youngsters the league is trying to help. I believe scheduling athletic events in the time traditionally and biblically set aside for worship of Almighty God is a breach of the rules and can only result in penalties too expensive for our society to pay.

In these days of drug use among young people and the pressures to destroy morality, we need to be providing more helpful influences, not less.

Scheduling on Sunday forces the youngsters to make a decision they shouldn't have to make. Let good, wholesome activities play together in a team effort.

It's time we listen to Jesus Christ's command "to seek first the kingdom of God."

Costly strikes

Editor:

The only strike that makes any sense is the football players. Their major point is not money, but rather the opportunity to play for whom they choose.

As for other strikes, striking for a raise is idiotic. The more you earn, the more taxes you pay. Pay increases trigger higher prices. In the long run, strikers lose. Many of you have no personal knowledge of 1929 to 1941. I have, and I can see the same thing coming fast.

Mind warp

Editor:

In his column Viewpoint, Bill Schroeder had evoked a great amount of thought and position taking on the Iran-Contra subject by Americans. He then positioned himself in opposition to Col. North. Mr. Schroeder has every right to enunciate his position. I can't understand his mind warp.

Col. North, in my opinion, has risked personal freedom and life in a desperate attempt to prevent communists from consolidating their beachhead on our southern border. How any American could oppose his actions is inconceivable. Obviously many do. The Congress, motivated by reasons that range from party politics to outright pro-communism, has acted to block all means of opposing the communists. The Congress has almost made it illegal to defend this Republic.

Col. North found means to achieve something in the face of such powerful internal opposition. I admire him for his patriotism and his amazing ingenuity.

'Real thing' alternative to tube games

by BILL SCHROEDER

Now that all of us have discovered how enjoyably you can spend Sunday afternoon without professional football on the tube, what about all this strike nonsense?

And it is nonsense. How can people earning as much money as pro football players do for having fun get truly enthused about striking? What would those guys be doing if they weren't butting heads and knocking each other down? Pounding nails? (Apologies to carpenter tradesmen.) Selling used cars? (Apologies to automobile salesmen.) The point is that the professional athletes would be working for a living. Put the emphasis on working.

Whenever I think of strikers, I get visions of hollow-eyed miners with black lung disease fighting for safer conditions in the mines. Or automobile workers battling for a few more cents per hour to compensate for their dreary assembly line environment and the mental fatigue imposed by a heartless management pushing for higher and higher quotas. Now that's a reason for striking in my book.

Mike Ditka is right on target when he exclaims, "The NFL owes me nothing. I owe everything to the NFL." Ditka wouldn't have a lovely home in Arbor Vista or drive to an office in Lake Forest in a luxury car were it not for football. Would Walter Payton reside in a Barrington mansion were it not for pro football? Let's be serious!

The late and great State Sen. Robert Coulson who served Lake County and environs in the Illinois General Assembly, once described a labor strike as "the last resort of a desperate man." I've never forgotten that observation and I'm sure Senator Coulson, who was a keen observer and a brilliant writer, was thinking of a miner or an assembly line worker, not a pro football player or a teacher, which he was on occasion.

Don't get me wrong. I'm not siding with management on this one. Pro football owners are just as greedy and heartless as mine owners and automobile manufacturers.

Football is a great game. I have a suggestion for those who love the action of blocking and tackling. Forget Sunday-and Monday nights. Try Friday-and Saturday afternoon. There are great games close by. The players are not big and powerful, but they play hard and try even harder. There's a winner and a loser. They're our high school gridiron warriors, and they deserve our allegiance, not the over-paid, pampered and primping pros. Try local football. I think you'll like it.

ONE MAN'S FAMILY--There's a household consensus that pop ought to be sprucing up his wardrobe for fall. With my penchant for jacketless summers, the family fashion board (wife and four offspring) feels it's high time for some new duds. I'm wary of becoming a GQ clone, so I'll be exercising veto power after basic darks for suits and traditional tweeds for sport coats. My collection of sweaters is doomed for mothballs. Something else (I don't know what) has replaced the V-neck. I'm letting them have their fun as long as they don't preempt my stockpile of 20-year-old narrow ties.

When hides are at stake, board members find unity

AN AMAZING THING happened last week: 23 people who can't usually agree on what the weather is like came to swift, unanimous agreement. None of the county board members, save Bob Neal (R-Wadsworth), like the idea of a county executive.

Neal, of course, is a candidate for the job. The others probably will be, too, once they get around to accepting the idea that it is going to go on the ballot.

Board members from every camp were telling me last week that, if 23 of the 24 board members stand united and go into their districts telling voters what a bad idea this is, it is a sure loser.

These people really do not understand the depth of public contempt for the county board.

Just Politics

By Charles Johnston

Here is a group of people who have sat on the problem of solid waste disposal for almost two decades and won't get around to dealing with it until a bad deal is imposed on them.

Here is a group of people that had to have a judge tell them they had to do something about the problem with the jails and do something about it.

Here is a group of people running a $100 million budget who can spend a week arguing over a $4,000 expenditure.

But threaten their hides and you find out just how swift and sure the board can act with unity. A few weeks ago, Norm Geary (R-Grayslake) suggested that the county board chairman needed a liquor inspector to provide a "check and balance" on the sheriff. That sort of statement presumes that the sheriff is not doing his job. One man's check and balance is another man's duplication of service, I guess.

But the classic check and balance provides for a legislature, a judiciary, and an executive. Lake county has a legislature and a judiciary, but no independent executive. Even in the smallest governmental units, I have no enthusiasm for those systems that combine the legislature and the executive powers. In large bodies, they simply don't work.

Slow down, child you save may be your own

by KATHY LENSING

On a cool September morning I was standing with my daughter waiting for her school bus to come and take her to her first grade class. We live on the east side of Rte. 83 and her bus stop is on the west side so that she has to cross a main highway to get on the bus.

On this, like any other morning, we were waiting and talking. We saw the bus approaching from the north and were giving our usual hugs goodbye. At the same time, coming from the south, was a woman in a brown Regal followed by two other vehicles. By now the bus's warning lights were on, the stop bar was beginning to come out, the lights turned red, and the stop bar was completely out.

My daughter started to cross. At the same time the brown car drove through with no intention of stopping. In fact, it actually accelerated to beat the bus. My daughter was hit and killed.

Now the lady in the brown car will have a memory of a senseless event for the rest of her life and my six-year-old daughter's life ended because someone could not take a mere two minutes out of their busy schedule so a child could

It is amusing, though, that the enthusiasm for checks and balances died when county board shenanigans were what was sought to be checked.

What is so terrible about creating an independent executive and letting the people vote for him? Is there anybody out there who feels they are less qualified to elect a county executive than county board members are?

THE MANEUVERING ON the proposed county executive is fast and furious. The early line is that, if passed, the Democratic candidate will be Linda Hess, currently Lake County Clerk.

State Rep. John Matijevich (D-North Chicago) has said that he will introduce legislation that would bar a county executive from being chosen if there is no primary involved. He may get the legislation passed, but it won't have any effect on this proposition.

The election code is clear that once a question of public policy is certified, it operates under the laws that were in effect at the time of certification. Certification of the county executive question is expected early next week. Once it comes, the entire election code can be revised and it won't make a bit of difference. While Matijevich's intentions are good, the law prevents legislators from disenfranchising voters on a whim.

Now, as to the power play by Bob Neal, I think there is little chance that Neal will end up being the Republican candidate. I don't know who the candidate will be, but Neal just isn't going to end up being the guy. He will serve as a lightning rod for the controversy on this subject and will end up keeping the Republican chairmanship, but working for another candidate.

WELL, CONGRESSMAN JOHN Porter sure fooled me. When we talked, he sounded like a George Bush man and I wrote last week that I expected him to accept a high-level role in the Bush campaign. Darned if this week doesn't roll around and I find out that he will be co-chairman, with State Rep. Lee Daniels, of Robert Dole's campaign in Illinois. Just another in the perils of the prognosticator.

WHEN PORTER WAS here, I was very interested in legislation he is working on to reform liability laws as they relate to volunteers. Porter is concerned that a lot of volunteer activity is being curtailed because volunteers can not afford to put themselves at risk. Nor can small communities and organizations accept free assistance because of the potential that they will be held liable for some mishap.

I was particularly interested in this subject as I had had a call last week from a lady in Round Lake Heights who could not understand why the village couldn't use more volunteers. That particular village is caught in a bad situation with insurance because of its size and some previous problems. It cannot make use of all the volunteers who are willing to help the village out because of, you guessed it, the potential for liability.

So I am glad to be able to report to the anonymous lady in Round Lake Heights that somebody at a high level is trying to do something about the problem.

entrepreneurDetermination, hard work pay for Ray Scarpelli

by KAREN WILTBURGER

"Charlie, how long you been here?" Raymond Scarpelli asks a smiling gray-haired man in the service department at Raymond Chevrolet and Oldsmobile Inc. in Antioch.

"Oh, since '64—a short time," Charlie answers and then disappears.

In the showroom, Scarpelli gently extends his hand to greet a woman looking to purchase a car. "So how many cars does this make for you and your family?" he asks.

"I don't know...I can't remember" she said. Scarpelli smiles and walks away, saying that the family must have purchased more than 20 cars from him.

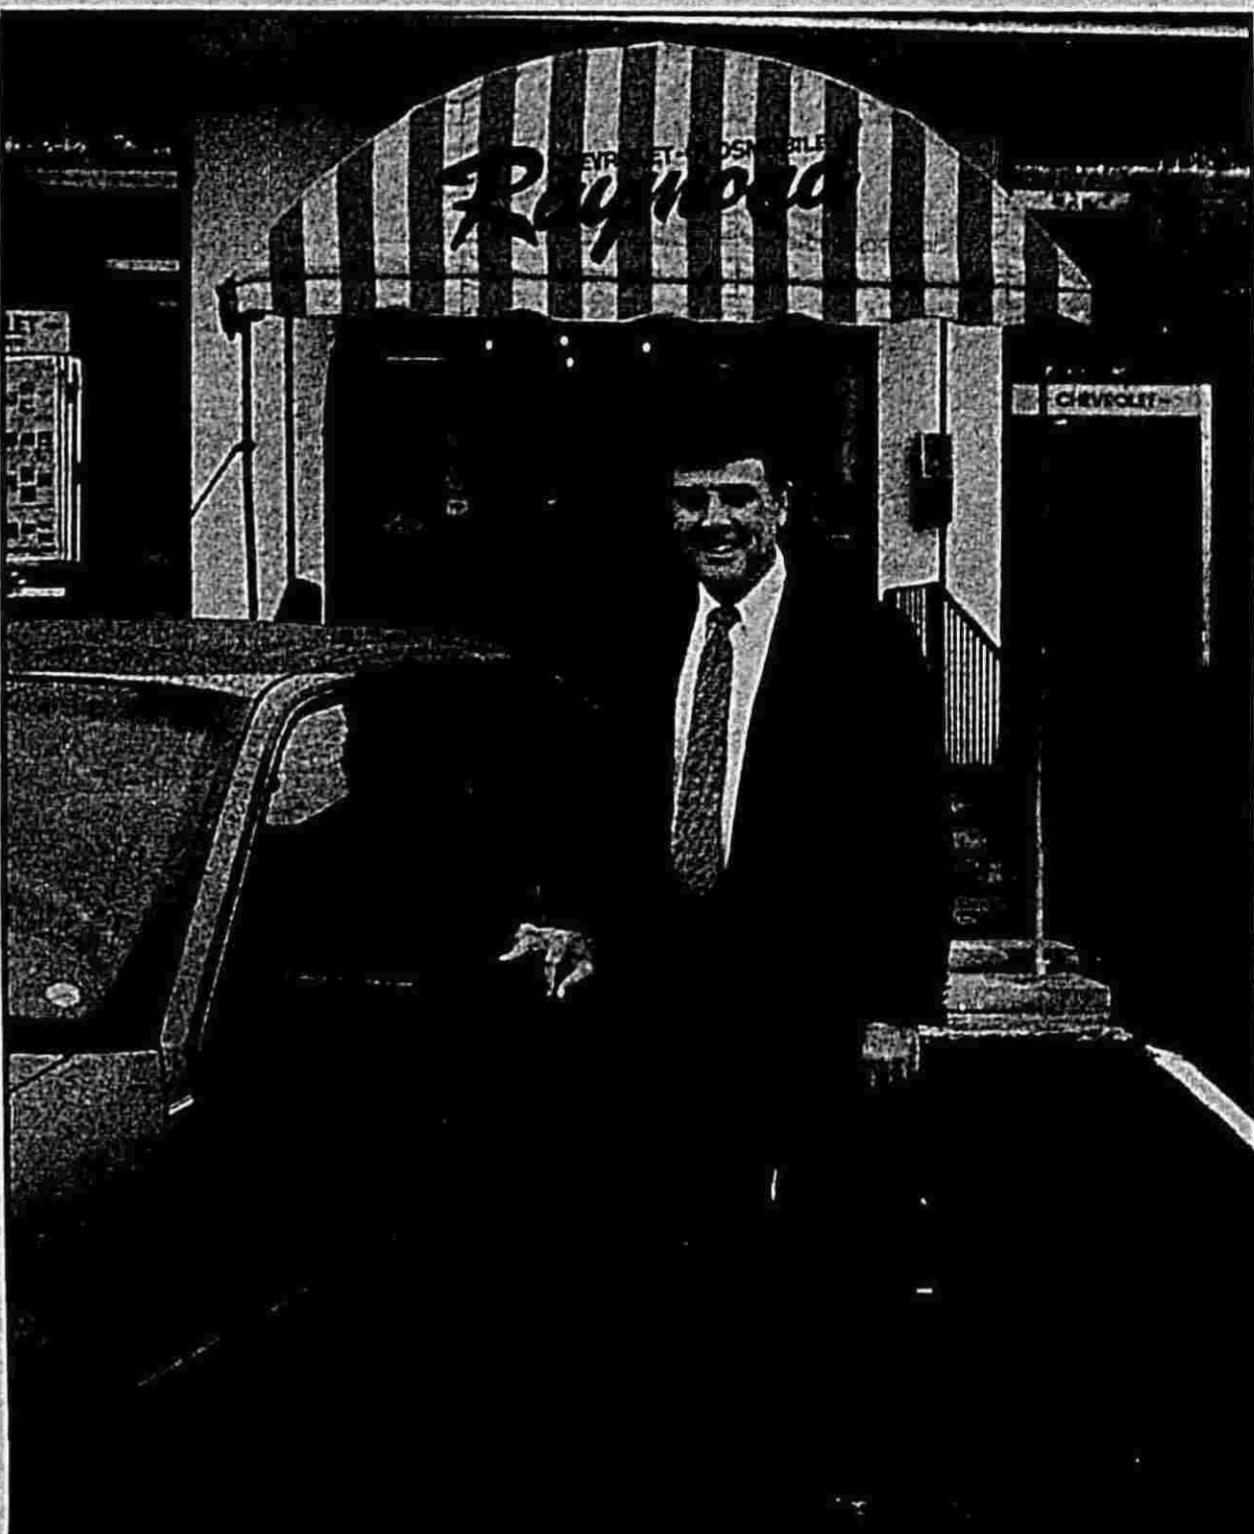

That soft-spoken personalized, but businesslike attitude with employees and customers gives Scarpelli the edge he needs to keep everyone satisfied.

The dealership rates in the top 20 percent nationwide for customer satisfaction. Besides a highly praised service department, Scarpelli personally calls and thanks his customers. One night last week, for example, Scarpelli spent an hour and a half on the phone with 23 new car owners. "It makes a big difference. People are amazed," he said. "Sometimes people call me back and thank me for calling them."

Open communication lines with employees is also a priority for Scarpelli. He makes it a point to share corporate information, such as finances, with managers in each department. "What happens is they become better managers when they know and understand what it takes to run a business."

At only 50 years old, Scarpelli is a self-made business owner. He grew up in a working class Italian neighborhood in Chicago where he had only determination to lead him to success.

At 18, he worked at a Chicago Ford dealer 12 hours a day with one day a week off. It was there where he met John Teresi who later opened a dealership in Antioch. Scarpelli moved to Antioch in 1963 to work for Teresi. Eight years ago Scarpelli bought the business and Teresi retired.

"I had a goal and I worked very hard. I put a lot of time and effort into it and it paid off," said Scarpelli. And with such rapid growth in the Antioch area, he is confident his business will flourish even more. The dealership sits on seven acres is already home to 58 employees and a $7.5 million inventory.

"Seven acres I thought would be more than adequate, but we've outgrown it," he said. Though Scarpelli has no plans to buy more land, he has made some bids to expand the dealership building.

Baxter appoints new president

Baxter announced the appointment of Wilbur H. Gantz to president of the company, as well as a number of other executive appointments.

Gantz, 49, was executive vice president and chief operating officer. He joined the company in 1966, and was appointed to the board in 1980.

The office of president was formerly held by Vernon Loucks, Jr., who remains chairman and chief executive officer of the company.

C.A. "Lance" Piccolo was named executive vice president, responsible for the company's hospital and alternate-site health care businesses. Piccolo, 47, joined Baxter in 1968, was named a vice president of sales in 1978 and a corporate vice president in 1981.

Robert J. Simmons, 44, also was named executive vice president of corporate marketing and distribution activities. He joined Baxter in its 1985 merger with American Hospital Supply, having started with American in 1965.

Anthony J. Rucci, 37, was elected senior vice president responsible for human resources functions. He was previously vice president.

Other executives who were named vice presidents and officers include James G. Connelly, president of the hospital supply division; Patrick J. Fortune, president of the parentals division; Darnell Martin, president of scientific products division; Gerard Moufflet, president of Baxter operations in France and Switzerland; David A. Nelson, president of the operating room division; and William A. Schmidt, president of the pharmaceutical division.

Club plans business promotions

In conjunction with the annual visit by Ali Lassen, president and founder, Leads Clubs and Contacts division of Ali Lassen's Success System will hold a first anniversary business mixer from 7:30 to 10 p.m. on Friday, Oct. 23, at the Radisson Hotel in Arlington Heights.

Leads Club and Contacts are advertising services for business men and women which use a networking system to provide member advertisers with weekly promotions of their business.

The primary goal of the organization is for member advertisers to gain leads and referrals for increasing business profits, with each business category within individual chapters guaranteed free from competition.

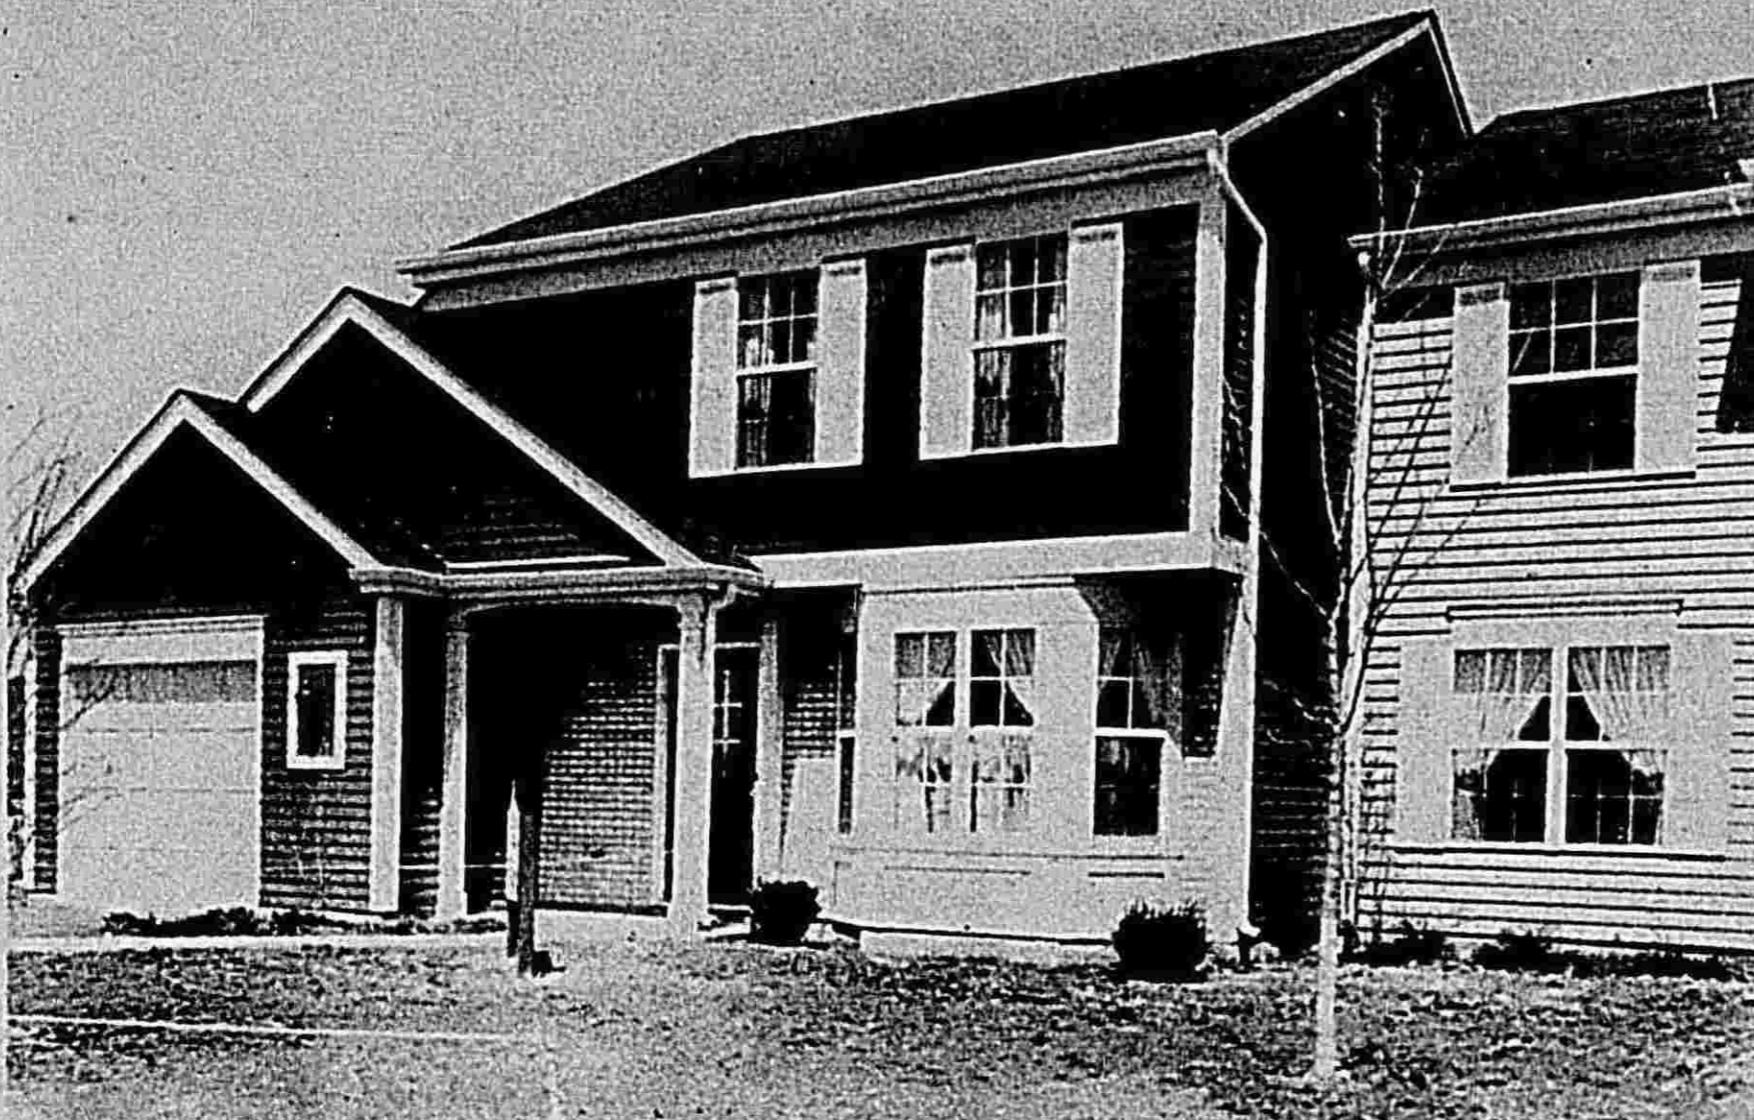

The purpose of the mixer is to introduce Lassen to the membership, honor founding chapter leaders, and present the founding chapter's Leads Leader of the Year Award.

The all-chapter mixer is an opportunity for the organization's 300 members and their guests to meet. Other recognitions and business promotions are planned.

A dessert buffet will be served, with the formal program beginning at 8 p.m.

Interested business people are invited to attend. Cost is $10 per person, by paid reservation. To make a reservation, write Leads Club Contacts, P.O. Box 925, Arlington Heights, 60006. Reservations must be made by Oct. 17.

Vendors can charge interest to state

Vendors engaged in business with the state would be eligible to receive interest on late payments made by the state, under a bill signed by Governor James Thompson. The measure was sponsored by State Rep. Dick Klemm (R-Crystal Lake) and endorsed by the National Federation of Independent Businesses.

"The need for the bill arose from complaints I received from small businesses and vendors, who were forced to take legal action against the state in order to be paid," Klemm said. "Many small companies and private businessmen can't afford the costly and time-consuming process of going through the Court of Claims to collect unpaid interest charges. This bill will encourage small businesses to be less hesitant about doing business with the state."

The new law amends the Prompt Payment Act to specify that a vendor must initiate a written request for the interest penalty, stating when it is due and payable. Klemm introduced a similar bill last year which passed the House but was stalled in the Senate.

"My bill changes the law so that if the state is late paying its bills, the interest is added to the amount due," Klemm stressed. "Businesses often borrow money to cover their expenses while waiting to be paid by the state. It is only fair that if the payment is late, the state should pay interest," he said.

Condo owners beware of insurance complications

by GARY S. MEYERS

Carefree living is one of the prime attractions of condominium ownership, but the allure can fade quickly if your insurance is not up to snuff.

Experts say that nearly everything about insuring a condominium is more complex than covering a single-family home. For one thing, while homeowners and apartment renters buy a single insurance policy, novice condo owners quickly learn that they must have at least two different kinds—insurance for their personal property and another for the building.

A so-called HO-6 policy protects the condo itself and personal property in the unit, including furniture, clothing and some appliances, in the event that they are damaged by fire, smoke, lightning, windstorm or theft.

The second policy, to reimburse for structural damage, is purchased by the condominium association and covers the common areas in which you share ownership with other condo owners. Those include lobbies, garages, rooftop swimming pools, boilers, sometimes your unit's walls, and other appliances.

As with regular homeowners' policies, you should take an inventory of your possessions to decide how much of the personal property insurance you will require. You may also need a rider on the policy to protect such specific valuables as jewelry, furs or antiques, since many policies limit the amount that will be paid for such items.

Most HO-6 policies, like homeowners' policies, pay only "cash" value for losses. That means that you will get the replacement cost of the item, minus depreciation. However, if you pay a higher premium, you can get full replacement coverage from most insurance companies.

The cost of HO-6 insurance varies according to the value and location of the condominium.

"The least expensive policies I've seen cost as little as $100 to $150 annually," said Rick Bourne, director of industry affairs for the National Association of Professional Insurance Agents, in Alexandria, Va. "The highest prices policies can cost from $2,000 to $5,000 or more."

Here are some of the features included in most HO-6 policies. Additional coverage can be purchased, raising the limits of protection on each item:

-Living expenses. Most condo-owners' policies will pay living expenses if your unit is damaged and you're forced to live elsewhere. The typical HO-6 policy provides living expenses up to one-tenth of the limit of your insurance policy. For example, a $100,000 policy would provide $10,000 in living expenses.

-Liability protection. If the wind blows a plant off your balcony and it hits a passerby, this coverage will pay damages up to the limits of your policy. It also covers personal injuries to guests and visitors, along with damage to their property.

-Loss assessment coverage. This coverage protects you if the condo association levies an assessment for loss or damage to the building not fully covered by the association's own policy.

If the association should lose a lawsuit and its insurance does not cover the judgment, its bylaws may require individual owners to pay the difference.

Some condo owner's policies cover this hazard to a limited extent, but you can buy additional coverage if you wish. The price will vary according to the amount of extra insurance you want and your insurer's assessment of the building's master policy.

—"Improvements protection" covers interior alterations to your condominium, which may include fancy wood paneling, expensive carpeting, wall partitions, interior walls, new built-in appliances, or lighting fixtures.

Insurance for such improvements usually is limited to $1,000 in the HO-6 policy, but this amount can be increased, depending on how much the improvements are worth and whether they are protected by the condo association's master policy.

"The unit owner should know just who is responsible for insuring what," said Bob Schultz, president of the Illinois Insurance Information Service.

"It's a very, very successful business," Scarpelli will tell you. "I enjoy people. That's the reason why I think the business is as successful as it is." But he also lets it be known that his values and his lifestyle haven't changed much. He may have a better suit or better shoes, but he has lived in the same home and has enjoyed the same activities since he came to Antioch.

Scarpelli is proud of his background in Chicago, but is also happy that he and his wife, Delores, have raised a family (3 sons) in a more quiet setting. He spends much of his extra time playing tennis, golfing and boating. He's also glad that he is less than an hour's drive to the city.

"I've got the best of both worlds here. If I had to do my life all over, I'd do it exactly the same," he said.

Though Scarpelli has spent all his working years in car dealerships, he feels that becoming an owner requires more than practical experience. He has completed a degree at the General Motors Institute and still he attends seminars and business classes.

In addition, for two years Scarpelli has served as president of the Chicagoland Oldsmobile Dealers Association where he was responsible for the slogan, "galant men of Olds." He is one of seven dealers nationwide to be a member of the Oldsmobile Marketing Committee.

Scarpelli hasn't pushed his own sons to follow his footsteps, but all three are involved with General Motors. Ray is the sales manager and David is in advertising at Raymond Chevrolet. Mark works for General Motors in Chicago.

"I'm proud of what I am, what I've done with my life."

Renters insurance covers myriad of loss, liability

More than half of the nation's apartment dwellers have no insurance to cover their personal property, even though without it, the loss in case of fire or theft could be immense.

Renters' valuables, appliances and keepsakes usually aren't protected by their landlord's insurance, either, and when disaster strikes, they may be left with nothing. The worst time to find out about the benefits of tenants' insurance is then.

"Insurance company records show that (in the case of fire) few tenants had coverage because they either assumed the building was fireproof, or they thought the landlord's insurance policy would cover their losses," said Bob Schultz, president of the Illinois Insurance Information Service.

Schultz said more renters would buy the comparatively inexpensive insurance if they asked themselves one question: How much would it cost me to start over if all my personal property and household belongings were destroyed by a fire?

Insurance agents refer to renters' insurance as a "contents policy," or "contents-broadform policy." It insures personal belongings and household contents, including furniture, appliances and clothing, against losses from many perils:

- Fire, lightning, windstorm, hail, explosion, riot, aircraft, vehicles, smoke, vandalism, theft, breakage of glass or safety glazing material.

- Falling objects, weight of ice, snow or sleet, building collapse, accidental overflow of water or steam, sudden and accidental damage to a steam or hot-water heating system or an air conditioner.

- Frozen plumbing, household appliances, and sudden electrical damage.

Tenant's insurance also protects against personal liability claims, including medical and legal expenses, as well as against claims made for damage caused by you to others' property.

For example, if your child throws a ball that breaks a car window, or if Fido nips the bill collector, you typically are covered for liability up to $100,000.

Most tenants' policies also will reimburse you as much as $1,000 for the unauthorized use of your credit card if you're required to pay for a loss, and from $500 to $1,000 to cover forgery of a check drawn on your account.

A tenant's policy usually costs less than condominium or homeowner's insurance because it does not cover structural damage. Although most companies require renters to buy minimum of $6,000 in insurance, premiums higher than $300 annually are rare.

Outside major metropolitan areas, the annual premium usually will be less than $200. One Chicago-based State Farm agent quoted $235 per year for a typical policy covering up to $20,000 in personal possessions.

The best way to estimate how much coverage you should have is to list every insurable item in your apartment, along with the estimated value.

Also account for personal property that is not in the apartment but is in your car, for instance. A typical tenants' policy covers the latter possessions up to a value of $1,000 or 10 percent of the limits of the policy, whichever is higher.

Because tenants often are novices at purchasing insurance, experts suggest that they ask the following questions before they sign on for a policy:

- Does the agent have the power to bind an agreement on the phone? This can save weeks of waiting for coverage to begin, and prevent any lapse in coverage.

- What is the exact amount and cost of coverage? What riders may be required to boost coverage for certain items like art and jewelry, and what will they cost? A professional photographer, for example, would place a rider on camera equipment.

- Will the policy pay as soon as the claim is filed? Some companies "reimburse" only after the lost items have been replaced by the policy holder.

- Does the policy pay only the depreciated value of claimed items, meaning that you will be paid for their value, used? You do not want to replace damaged possessions with used clothing or furniture, so take out insurance that pays the entire replacement price.

Computer aids search

Ample financial assistance is available to college students if they know where to look for it, according to Howard Shaughnessy, head counselor for Computer Assisted Scholarship Help Plus (CASH), based in Gurnee.

Through a central national data base, CASH will locate the money needed for college education.

Each student is provided with a custom computer print-out identifying all sources of funding, everything from scholarships, grants and loans to tax-deductible opportunities and work-study options.

"Many high school guidance counselors and most parents don't know where to turn for complete and accurate information on college financing," said Shaughnessy. "Through our computer network reports, the student is guided through the entire college financing process and each funding source is identified on his or her eligibility."

CASH guarantees a minimum of 10 sources for each student. They recommend that student's parents and high school guidance counselor review this source material.

In addition to college financing, CASH provides students with other services they need for college.

A college selection report provides complete information on colleges that have the characteristics student desires.

For more information on any one or all of these services, contact CASH at 1600 Deer Run, Gurnee, 60031, or phone (312) 244-4840.

Matthew Costner, Hackman find 'No Way Out'

If I have said it once, I have said it twice: I am in love with the suspense mystery/thriller. The only problem that I have with modern thrillers is that I always have the feeling 'I've seen this plot before'. Such is the case with 'No Way Out'. It is an excellent movie in its own right, but if one is familiar with the history of motion pictures, as I am (honest), then one is constantly reminded of a new twist thrown into an old plot that has been around for some time.

'No Way Out' stars Kevin Costner, Gene Hackman and Sean Young. But if memory serves, I think I've seen this plot (minus a few twists) in a film called 'North By Northwest'. Only the part of Kevin Costner was played by Cary Grant. The tangled web of suspicion gets tanglier (if there is such a word) toward the end of the movie. I must admit (see Bill's column over to the right) that the last five minutes are a very questionable area of this film. I guess, in a thriller, there has to be a few thrills and a mystery needs a mystery or two, and so a mystery/thriller has to have more than its shares of mystery and thrills. On this basis, the last five minutes along with the rest of the film can be justified.

'Tension' I believe is the word that best describes this film. The dangers all seem very real and boy, are they contemporary. Some of the action seems to be taken from senate hearing transcripts.

Kevin Costner is growing into a major star and his performance in this movie will only help to secure that opinion. His portrayal of a man on the 'edge' is stunning. This being no small accomplishment when the like of Gene Hackman is sharing the camera frame. Costner's performance helps maintain the ever increasing tension as his character falls deeper and deeper into an ever entangling skein of plot. In the last few minutes of this film, one is allowed to view the inner working of a screenwriters mind. We may feel that 'he' hasn't been playing fair with us movie goers sitting there in the dark for these two hours.

That is a point of view, but, I'm sure you will enjoy the tale that is woven in this fine picture nevertheless. 'No Way Out' is rated R and is playing at area theatres. Look for it and let me know what you thought of 'the last five minutes'.

Tense 'No Way Out' is 5 minutes too long

OK, let's get right to the point. "No Way Out" is undoubtedly one of the most tense and gripping thrillers I have seen in a long time. Also, it features a talented cast, the intriguing locale of Washington, D.C., and a very imaginative plot.

"No Way Out" stars Kevin Costner as a Navy Lt. Cmdr. who becomes romantically and sexually involved with a woman (Sean Young) who is also the mistress of the Secretary of Defense, (Gene Hackman). Costner knows this but Hackman is unaware that he does. Hackman, in a fit of jealous anger, commits a crime involving Young and he will be ruined if this is discovered. So his fiercely loyal assistant (Will Patton) masterminds a cover-up to protect him.

Patton's plan is to blame the crime on the other man. Young was seeing whose identity is unknown. Costner is put in charge of the investigation. He, of course, knows it is a cover-up, and knows that the evidence will point to him. He must find a way to get at the truth before his own investigation leads back to him.

The plot of this film is packed with irony, suspense, and cleverness. The tension mounts very effectively as the web closes in on Costner, who gives a convincing portrayal of a very smart man in over his head. Too often, the writers of movies such as this have their characters make stupid blunders in order to sustain suspense. But Costner's character is clever and his ability to think "on his feet" narrowly saves his hide more than once.

As for Gene Hackman, an actor I admire, his work in this film may even make his appearance in 'Superman IV' forgivable. And Patton does an outstanding job of playing an absolute slimebucket. I enjoyed the reappearance of Young, whom I hadn't seen in anything since 'Stripes' and 'Blade Runner'. She is a talented actress.

If I have any complaint with the movie, it is only that I think the ending throws everything off. In the very last couple of scenes, a shocking surprise is revealed that I wasn't quite sure how to take at first. It seemed like the writer had betrayed the audience in a way, but it was a devilishly clever twist.

Rock Tracks

By Rob Ferrus

After a short vacation in New York, Paul and Linda McCartney are back in Britain completing a new studio album they've been working on for some time. While Paul did record some tracks, both here and in England with producer Philip Ramone, the LP is nowhere near finished, and most likely McCartney will release a Greatest Hits album before Christmas and before the studio work.

No one can say Linda Ronstadt isn't versatile. She is currently finishing her album entitled "Songs Of My Father," a collection of Spanish songs backed up by the famous Mariachi Players. It will be released probably before Christmas by Elektra Records, and a tour is expected.

"When we were kids, everyone wanted to be the Beatles. Now we are," jokes Bono of U2. They may not be bigger than the Fab Four, but they're as close as they've ever been. As they return to the States for a completely sold-out stadium tour, new believers will undoubtedly be overwhelmed by the U2-mania that swept the U.S. during their appearance last spring. While their fans have pointed to U2's live show as the cause of their growing appeal, in an interview conducted by Musician Magazine (October), Bono points the finger right back: "I really respect our audience. We came out of that audience, and now we're onstage playing to it. I think they're extraordinary and, indeed, a kind of phenomenon in their own right."

Despite rumors that Jason Bonham, son of the late Led Zeppelin drummer John Bonham, will join up with Jimmy Page and Robert Plant in a re-formed Zep, Bonham is still very much a part of his own group, Virginia Wolf. ©1987, McNaught Synd.

Drake rehearses 'Snow White'

Barat College's Children's Theatre will present "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs," Oct. 6-10 in the Drake Theatre, Sheridan and Westleigh Rds., Lake Forest.

Performances are scheduled for 10 a.m., Oct. 6, 7, 8, 9, 10 and for 1 p.m., Oct. 7, 8, 9, 10.

Directing the production will be Sheila Sabrey-Saperstein, a Barat College lecturer in theatre. A Ph.D. candidate at Northwestern University, she earned her bachelors degree at Mary Manse College, Toledo, and her masters from Bowling Green.

According to Sabrey-Saperstein, Barat's production on "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs" will be pure fun with audience participation an important part of each show. The seven dwarfs, she explains, will be chosen at each performance from among the children in the audience.

Tickets for "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs" are $2.50 each for general admission and $1.50 each for groups of 20 or more. For reservations, call the Drake Theatre Box Office, (312) 295-2620.

Aerobics in costume

Aerobics class members Anne Whalen and Judy Silboa, Waukegan, can claim the 'Devil made them do it' when they work out in costume at Kathy Morrissey's Halloween Workout, a tradition with Morrissey at centers at St. Dismas and Oakdale School at Sunset and Macree, Waukegan.

'This Must be the Place' opens Kirk Players' 22nd season

Mundelein High School theatre teacher Jon Leslie Lynn, Jeff Lynn, and Paula Lynn Willems, veteran Kirk Player brothers and sister team, have been cast in major roles in the Kirk Players' first production of the 1987-88 season.

They will appear in "This Must be the Place," a crazy dual-identity farce by Monk Ferris.

Robert Zachery (Jon Leslie Lynn), a talented and world-famous portrait painter (except that he can't paint a certain part of the anatomy) is simply trying to propose marriage to April March (Carol Marie Fischesser, Kirk's 1987 Most Valuable Player).

Zachery's best friend, Roger Clark (Jeff Lynn), the humble plumber, simply wants Zachery's home, name and profession for a few hours to woo Candy Cluster (Paula Lynn Willems), a dieting Las Vegas showgirl.

One of Zachery's clients, debutante Gloria Desmond (Wendi Lynn), her mother Minerva (Judy Brennan), and her Aunt Pomona Beaumont (Phyllis Carter), are searching for the missing Clorinda Beaumont and the famous Desmond Diamonds.

Private detective Wendell Zolotnick (Tom Schrimpf) has been hired to help in the search.

Monstrous Julian Glester (Hill

Carter) follows April March, the only girl he will ever love, to Zachery's home near Las Vegas. The mayhem and confusion that results when they all get together keeps this maniacal farce moving at a fast pace.

Stage manager Carl Johnson says, "This will be a hilarious show—if we can just remember who we are." Brennan, returning to the Kirk Players after a nine-year absence, is the assistant stage manager. Scott Nemeth, the newest Kirk Player, is props manager.

Sponsors for the opening show of the season for the third time in a row are the Lake County Arts Council. Formerly the Waukegan Area Arts Council, the council is dedicated to promoting all areas of the arts in Lake County. This production is a major fundraiser for their activities.

"This Must be the Place," under the direction of Kirk Player founder John W. Lynn, will be presented at 8 p.m. on Friday and Saturday, Oct. 2 and 3, in the Mundelein High School auditorium.

Individual tickets are $4 for adults, $2 for students and only $1 for senior citizens and children under 12. Tickets are available from members of the Kirk Players, members of the Lake County Arts Council and at the door on show nights. For additional information, call (312) 566-6594 or (312) 949-8858.

Symphony, chorus are in concert

The Waukegan Symphony and Chorus will start off its 1987-88 season with a star-spangled pops concert at 8 p.m. on Saturday, Oct. 10, in the center mall of Lakehurst Shopping Center, Waukegan.

The first two portions of the concert feature Lynn Schornick directing the orchestra in Copeland's "Appalachian Spring," and a selection of Americana.

The third portion features Don Horisberger directing the chorus and orchestra in Brower and Wyrtzen's "Liberty," patriotic salute in words and song produced for the rededication of the Statue of Liberty.

"Liberty" features guest soloist Toni DiDonato, soprano, and Thomas L. Potter, baritone. Michael Hughes is the narrator.

Tickets are $10 and are available at the door or in advance. Refreshments will be available. For information and table reservations, call (312) 244-1660.

'Music Man' makes more 'trouble'

by BILL DOTSON

You got entertainment, my friends, right here in Antioch City. That's right, entertainment with a capital 'E' and that rhymes with 'P' and that stands for PM&L...Theatre, that is.

Yes, just in case you haven't heard, my friends...Although it would be hard to believe that anyone hasn't heard by now. PM&L's current production of Meredith Willson's beloved classic, "The Music Man", played to a packed house the night this reviewer was in the audience. This immensely popular musical is entering its closing weekend (Oct. 1, 2, 3 and 4) at PM&L, which, for the most part, does a respectable job of bringing it to life.

I must admit to the fact that I have never yet seen the movie which gave me the advantage of being able to watch this version without constantly making comparisons. I am aware, of course, that Robert Preston's famous portrayal of 'Professor' Harold Hill in the film is considered by many to be the definitive one which no one else can match.

However, putting aside the shadow of Preston for our purposes here, it must be noted that Gary Stamm does a commendable job of playing that slippery and scheming but somehow irresistably likable, con artist. Both his acting and singing are fine. In a show that is this big, it would be easy for anyone to get 'lost' in the crowd. But Stamm's presence keeps Hill at the center of the show.

Other standouts in the cast include Rosline Trusky as Marian Paroo, Dolores Finley as Mrs. Paroo, Aileen Biel as Mayor Shinn's wife, and Larry Bersie as (boo! hiss!) Charlie Cowell. ("He doesn't know the territory!")

My favorite musical selections from the show include 'Marian The Librarian', 'The Wells Fargo Wagon', the opening sequence with the traveling salesmen, cleverly set to the rythm of the train, and, of course, the most famous, 'Trouble (in River City)'.

Speaking of music, one couldn't help but notice the occasional sound of a somewhat sour trombone. Maybe it's player was using the Professor's 'think' system? (Too bad there weren't seventy-five others!)

Catch 'The Music Man' in its final weekend at 8 p.m., with a 2 p.m. matinee on Sunday.

Adler schedules barn dance

The David Adler Cultural Center's monthly barn dance will be on Saturday, Oct. 3, at 8 p.m. at the American Legion Hall, 715 N. Milwaukee Ave., Libertyville.

Veteran stringband musicians and callers of legendary talent and patience "walk" through each dance, so that expert and novice dancers alike can get right into the swing of things. Admission is $3. For more information, call (312) 367-0707.

Dog trials

The English Springer Spaniel Club of the Central States will hold a hunting dog trial at Chain O'Lakes State Park on Oct. 3 and 4.

'Music Man' to close

Marian, Roz Trusky, and Amarillis, Audra Miles, sing goodnight to their sweethearts in 'The Music Man' at PM&L Theater in Antioch. Show closes this weekend.

Network meets

The Community Youth Network's Annual Dinner Meeting will be held on Oct. 2, at the Country Squire Banquet Inn in Grayslake at 6 p.m. In honor of the bicentennial celebration of the United States Constitution, U.S. Dist. Court Judge George N. Leighton will be the featured speaker.

Kirk Production to raise art funds

The Lake County Arts Council will co-sponsor a Kirk Players production as a fundraiser to generate monies towards a matching grant from the Illinois Arts Council.

The production, "This Must be the Place" by Monk Ferris, will be presented Oct. 2 and 3 at 8 p.m. at the Mundelein High School Auditorium, 1350 Hawley St., Mundelein.

"This Must be the Place" is a maniacal farce which "has no plot whatsoever" and is simply "frothy fun." Ticket prices are $4 for adults, $2 for students, $1 for senior citizens and children under 12.

The Lake County Arts Council has been in existence for five years and has achieved three significant goals: providing an opportunity for arts organizations and individuals to get to know each other and share in their ideas and endeavors in promoting cultural awareness; bringing state dollars into the county through a regranting program channeled through the Illinois Arts Council; and providing a Calendar of Events brochure which lists the various fine and folk arts activities scheduled throughout the local communities, updated and distributed on a quarterly basis.

The Lake County Arts Council continually seeks opportunities for growth, encouraging any interested individuals or organizations in becoming a part of its membership. For more information, write to LCAC, P.O. Box 8849, Waukegan, 60079.

Lodge dinner

Washburn Lodge's 145 Club will be serving a meatball and spaghetti dinner at the Bristol Masonic Temple on Saturday, Oct. 3. This dinner will be served from 3 to 7 p.m. A cost of $3.50 for adults and $2 for children under 12 will include salad, spaghetti and meatballs, garlic bread and dessert. The public is invited.

'Bye Bye Birdie' to open at Woodstock Opera

Roles especially attuned to several area performers who have become favorites of Woodstock Opera House goers are in the upcoming Woodstock Musical Theatre Co.'s production, "Bye Bye Birdie."

The swooning teenager, domineering mother, fainting wife, blustering politician, overprotective father, love-struck romanticist, and a teen-age musical idol—they're involved in the hilarious musical comedy scheduled Oct. 9 through 18 at the Woodstock Opera House.

The story of a teen-age rock and roll star drafted into the army with a national television send-off gives Don Crop, Sharon Harrison, Gary Koon, Kathie Comella and other local favorites the format for a delightful two hours of upbeat entertainment.

Koon, of Huntley, is the song writer-press agent who writes "One More Kiss" as a way to gain national exposure on a television show. His fiancee, Rosie, is performed admirably by Harrison.

This is Koon's fifth Woodstock Musical Co. show. An electronic engineer with Arnold Engineering, Koon says his favorite role was playing John Adams in "1776."

Harrison has participated in 50 productions, from stagehand to director, and has been active at the Woodstock Opera House since 1967. She has produced the Miss Woodstock Pageant for eight years.

She says her favorite on-stage roles were Miss Adelaide in "Guys and Dolls," and Anne Sullivan in "Miracle Worker."

During the summer she directed "Sound of Music" at Lake Geneva. She and her husband, Frank, started WMTC 11 years ago.

Two veteran women stars have roles both will embellish and enjoy. Kathie Comella is Albert's domineering mother, and Karen Wells is the swooning wife of the mayor. Dan Malone, a veteran from Crystal Lake, is the town mayor.

Comella is the WMTC secretary and has been involved in its many phases of production for many years—stage manager, make-up design, and acting in two dozen plays over the past 20 years. She enjoys the chance to use many dialects in her varied appearances.

Wells was one of the teen-agers who reopened the Opera House in the mid-1960's, and was a founding member of the Townsquare Players. She has been involved in every facet of theater for a quarter century.

Malone and Crop are two stage veterans renewing on-stage appearances, both enjoying Woodstock

Opera House productions for two decades. Malone has been on stage for 30 years and as the mayor in "Bye Bye Birdie," anticipates a coast-to-coast television appearance.

Crop has been acting in community theater as an avocation for 22 years. This will be his eighth WMTC show. As the father of the love-stricken teenager, Mr. McAfee, Crop pulls out all the stops to mug, cajole, threaten, beg and demand during his on-stage clashes with his daughter, Kim, and Birdie, the rock and roll star.

Kim is played by Ellen Jania, a kindergarten teacher from Woodstock who teaches in McHenry. Jeffery Scott, East Troy, Wis., has one of the fun roles as the jealous boyfriend, Hugo.

The energetic and Presley-like role of Birdie is played by Dean Vosburgh, Woodstock. During the day, he's finding new ways to captivate Kim and wiggle his way through the short-lived appearance on the Ed Sullivan show.

Vosburgh recalls recent favorite roles as Rolf in "Sound of Music," as a guard in "Man of LaMancha," and as the Pharaoh in "Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat."

Tickets are available by calling the Woodstock Opera House ticket office, (815) 338-5300. Prices are $7 and $10, and Visa and MasterCard are accepted.

This Woodstock Musical Theatre Co. production is co-produced by Lou Czarny and his wife, Janie. Czarny was production coordinator for "South Pacific" and "Say Good Night, Gracie." He's also appeared on stage in several roles, including Ito in "Mame."

He is a member of the WMTC board and is treasurer. Janie has served as house manager for many productions, including both WMTC and the Townsquare Players.

Offer WIC

The Lake County Health Dept. offers Women, Infants and Children Food and Nutrition (WIC) at its new Northeast Satellite facility in Zion. Supplemental foods and nutrition education to pregnant and nursing women, infants and children under age 5 is offered.

Network meets

The Community Youth Network's Annual Dinner Meeting will be held on Oct. 2, at the Country Squire Banquet Inn in Grayslake at 6 p.m. In honor of the bicentennial celebration of the United States Constitution, U.S. Dist. Court Judge George N. Leighton will be the featured speaker.

The other Hawaiian islands

by JIM WARNEK
President, North Star Travel

If you were asked to name one of the Hawaiian Islands, what would the answer be? Waikiki? No, that's a beach. Honolulu? Close, but that's a city.

Actually, there are 132 islands, but only eight major ones. Of those, only seven are inhabited. (The eighth, Kahoolawe, is used by the U.S. Navy as a bombing range—not a favorite spot for vacationing!) One of the remaining seven, an island known as Niihau, is privately owned and off limits to the public.

That leaves six islands, which may be visited during your stay in Paradise. The names? Oahu (where Waikiki is), Kauai, Molokai, Lanai, Maui and Hawaii (yes, there is an island called Hawaii, though you will most often hear it referred to as the "Big Island").

The Hawaiian Islands all have much in common, yet are very different from each other. Each was formed by volcanoes. In fact, each island was once located over the fissure which is still feeding molten lava to the active volcanoes on the "Big Island" today. As the tectonic plate drifted over this "hot spot," more islands were formed.

Each island is actually a small continent. Volcanic mountains in the interior cause the northeast side of each island to be very rainy, while the southwestern side is often drier than the most barren desert.

While the Hawaiian Islands may be similar geologically, each has something different to offer those who visit them.

Want to walk over flowing lava and see an active volcano? How about visiting a coffee plantation? Ever try snow skiing in the tropics at 13,000 feet? All this can be found on the "Big Island" of Hawaii.

Would you like to see the waterfalls seen in the opening scenes of "Fantasy Island"? How about "Nurses Beach," from the movie "South Pacific"? Did you know there is a 3,600 foot deep canyon in one of the Hawaiian Islands? All this is on the island of Kauai.

Father Damien's leper colony is long gone, but the island upon which it was located is still there. Molokai may be one of the lesser visited islands, but (and maybe for that reason) the people are the most friendly of any of the Hawaiian Islands.

Maui is the place to be if 33 miles of public beaches interests you. Around January, one can watch the humpback whales. Or, perhaps you would like to take a 30-mile bike ride—all downhill!

And of course there is Oahu, where everything happens day and night. Want to try surfing? Maybe Oahu's North Shore with its 30-foot waves would appeal to you!

Would you like to really be alone? Lanai boasts only one hotel with 11 rooms! More are on the way, though.

In upcoming articles, I will more thoroughly describe each island. Maybe I'll even let you in on some secret beaches—if you promise not to tell!

Adler sets concert

Carla Sciaky, a folk musician who plays instruments of the old and the new world, will make a return appearance at the David Adler Cultural Center on Saturday, Oct. 10, in two shows, at 7:30 and 9:30 p.m.

Her repertoire includes traditional ballads from the British Isles, fiddle music from Scandinavia and eastern Europe, and medieval pieces played on the psaltery. She has performed throughout the U.S., including programs at the Carnegie Recital Hall and Epcot Center.

Opening both shows and guaranteeing a musical full house will be the Chicago Cajun Aces, making their first appearance at Adler.

The group features Will Whedbee on fiddle; Fred (312) 367-0707.

Campeau on second fiddle; John Terr on guitar; Charlie Terr on Cajun accordion; and Jane Whedbee on triangle.

The Aces' Cajun style comes from southwestern Louisiana and includes traditional waltzes and two-steps. They have performed in Louisiana, and are also regulars at Chicago's Bayou Cookin' restaurant.

Concert admission is $5 for adults; $4.50 for members; $3 for senior citizens, anyone with a valid student i.d. and children six to 12; and free for children under six.

The David Adler Cultural Center, 1700 N. Milwaukee Ave., Libertyville, is a non-profit organization. For more information, call (312) 367-0707.

Critic's Choice In... Lakeland 'Cooking With Gus' peaks in fourth act

by GLORIA DAVIS

After dining either on a delightful lunch or a delicious prime rib dinner at Tamara Royale in McHenry, dinner-luncheon theater goers are being treated to a three act comedy presented by Four Star Productions.

Four Star is made up of three talented local actresses Lillian Allen, Yvonne Alton and Ann-Marie Cina, ably assisted by their spouses, who make up the production company's technical crew, George Cina, Howard Alton, and Walter Allen.

On Sept. 22, the group that had been performing at Riptides in Johnsburg, had the opening of their first effort for Tamara Royale an inn on Rte. 31, near the Northern Ill. Medical Center, that has just been opened about four months itself, that effort being an unimportant farce called "Cooking With Gus."

The premise of the plot is that gourmet cook Alton (Gus), who has been secretly living with well-to-do inventor Bill Bunton for 18 years, has a chance to get her own tv cooking show if she can conquer the problem of stage and microphone fright.

Roomate Bunton, who wants Alton to marry him, while dabbling in hypnotism cures her problem with post hypnotic suggestions — crosses her up by changing those suggestions unbeknownst to her, when he finds out that she plans to sign a seven year contract after she has promised to marry him as soon as the show is cancelled.

Don Crop plays Alton's flamboyant agent and mentor, wig, leisure suits and all, and Lillian Allen often steals the show as her "Jewish gypsy alcoholic neighbor.

The show starts slowly and the first two acts are explanatory and nebulous, the performers far outdoing their script, but when the hilarious fourth act bursts upon the scene, the audience starts rolling in the aisles.

Bunton's post hypnotic suggestions that Alton react the same as she would having downed straight vodka, everytime she says the word cup in her pilot video, and that Allen pass out when she hears the word cheers, result in zany mayhem that leaves the two females draped in spaghetti and Crop losing his wig and mind.

The play was directed by Cina and plays for luncheon dates during the week and with Sunday brunch as well as special dinner theater dates. Call the Tamara Royale at (815) 344-5500 for more information and to make reservations.

Lodge dinner

Washburn Lodge's 145 Club will be serving a meatball and spaghetti dinner at the Bristol Masonic Temple on Saturday, Oct. 3. This dinner will be served from 3 to 7 p.m. A cost of $3.50 for adults and $2 for children under 12 will include salad, spaghetti and meatballs, garlic bread and dessert.

Schedule classical concert

The Abegg Trio, a chamber music ensemble from West Germany, will perform at the University of Illinois at Chicago (UIC) on Tuesday, Oct. 6.

The event will take place at 7 p.m. in the Illinois Room of Chicago Circle Center, 750 S. Halsted St. Admission is $3.

One of Europe's most exciting young chamber music ensembles, the Abegg Trio features Ulrich Beetz, violin; Birgit Erichson, cello, and Gerril Zitterbart, piano.

The ensemble will present a variety of piano trios by Mozart, Beethoven, Debussy (the rarely performed "Trio in G" composed in 1880) and a recent work by Dieter Acker.

Since its formation in 1976, the Abegg Trio has garnered numerous awards including prizes at the International Chamber Music Competitions in Colmar (1977), Geneva (1977) and Bonn (1979). In 1981 the performers were awarded a gold medal as best trio at the International Young Musicians Festival. For more information call (312) 413-5070.

Decorated

Sgt. James A. Domkowski, son of John A. and Elsie L. Domkowski of Antioch, has been decorated with the Air Force Achievement Medal in the Philippines. Domkowski is an aerospace control and warning systems operator with the 848th Aircraft Control and Warning Squadron. He is a 1981 graduate of Antioch Community High School.

'Must Be the Place'

Paula Willems, Wildwood, and Jeff Lynn, Mundelein, rehearse scene from Kirk Player's season opener, 'This Must Be the Place,' to be presented at Mundelein High School.

Lambs sets harvest ball

Enjoy dinner and dance to the music of the Peter Drozoff Orchestra at The Lambs' Women's Board's Annual Harvest Ball, Saturday, Oct. 17 at The Michigan Shores Club in Wilmette.

A silent auction will be conducted during cocktails followed by a grand auction after dinner. Radio personality Mel Bellairs will auction such items as a one-week stay at the beautiful Jamaica Villa, a genuine fur fling, an original Leonardo Nierman oil painting, a video movie camera, recorder and much, much more.

This year's black-tie optional Harvest Ball will honor Dr. John B. Murphy for giving over 20 years of service to The Lambs. Tickets are $75 per person. For reservations, call Linda Bronner at (312) 831-3275. Proceeds from the benefit will go directly to The Lambs.

Ballet National du Nord coming to Woodstock

The Woodstock Opera House is proud to present Ballet National du Nord in its first midwestern tour at 8 p.m. on Friday and Saturday, Oct. 30 and 31, and at 2 p.m. on Saturday, Oct. 31.

Created in 1983 under the direction of Alfonso Cata, the Ballet National du Nord is today known as the Roubaix/Nord Pas de Calais National Choreography Center.

Based in Roubaix, France, this national choreography center is remarkably well-equipped, with stage, dressing rooms, dance studio and technical services.

For the past two years, 30 dancers have performed, in France and abroad, a rich repertoire of outstanding masterpieces of George Balanchine, whose technique and style are the hallmark of the Ballet National du Nord. Pieces by choreographers like John Clifford, Vicente Nebreda and, soon, Lar Lubovitch; and works for the company created by Cata, as well as guest choreographers, including Jean-Christophe Maillet, Jean-Pierre Bonnefous, and Andre Prokovsky.

From 1983 to 1986, the company danced in France, Belgium, Switzerland, Italy, Egypt, Tunisia, Jordan, Yugoslavia and even Turkey. Since 1985, the company averages 90 performances a year.

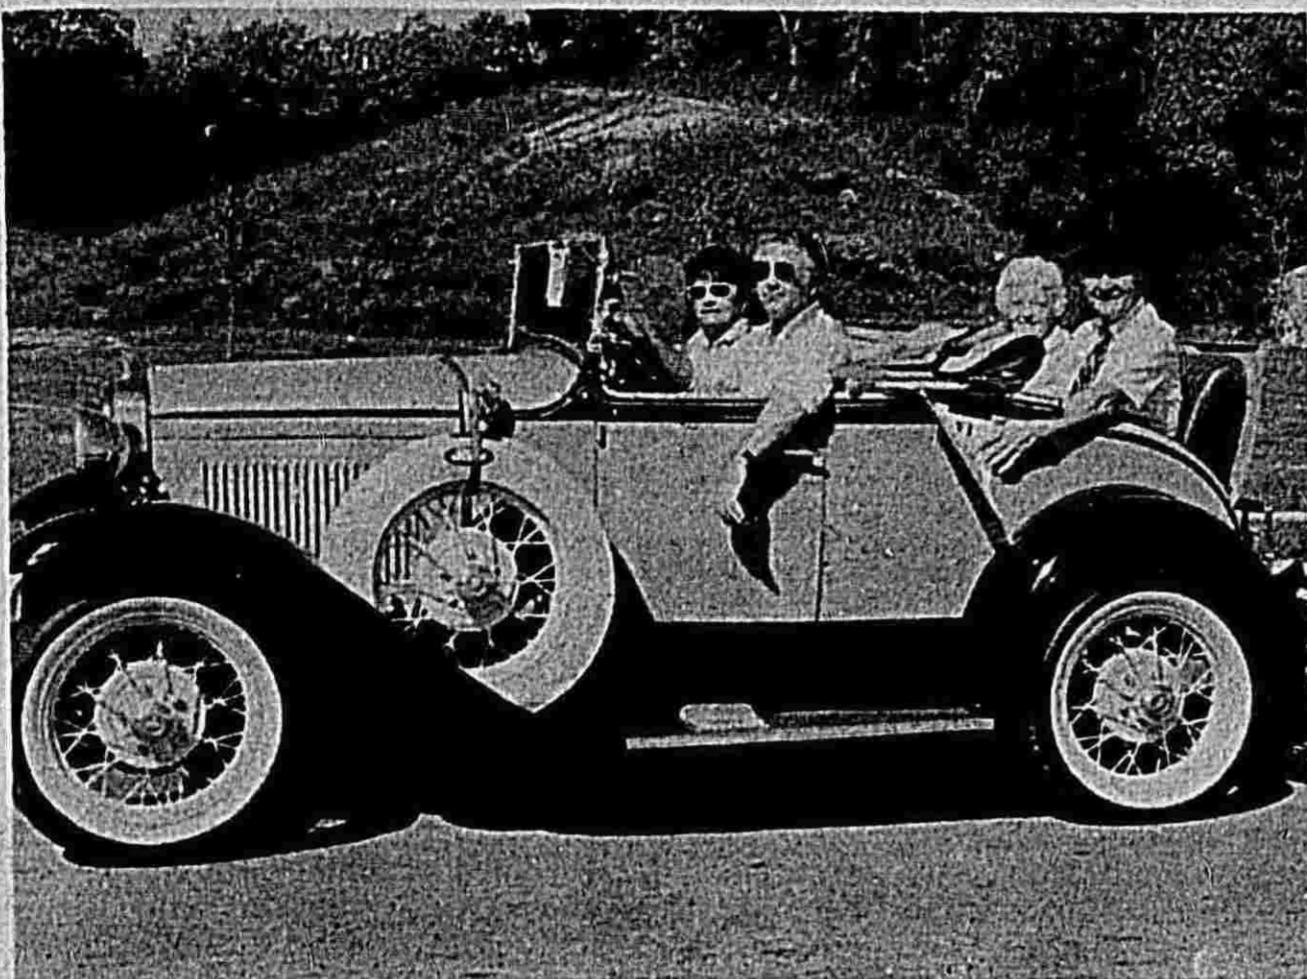

Artistically, the company has developed a repertory of over 50 ballets. Ballet masters and teachers from the New York City Ballet come to the Ballet du Nord regularly to set and rehearse these works.

Europeans consider the company as representative of the Balanchine schooling.

The program for all three performances at the Woodstock Opera House include the U.S. premiere of "Concerto" with music by Keith Emerson and choreography by Jean-Pierre Bonnefous; "Tarantella," music by Louis Moreau Gottschalk and choreography by George Balanchine; "La Mer," with music by Claude Debussy and choreography by Alfonso Cata; and "Capriccio for Piano and Orchestra," music by Igor Stravinsky and choreography by George Balanchine.

For ticket information, call (815) 338-5300.

Lions to man the corners for Candy Day fundraiser

Lions and Lionesses will be visible throughout Illinois on Lion's Candy Day, coming up on Friday, Oct. 9.

More than 30,000 Lions and Lionesses, representing some 750 Lions Clubs, swelled by additional thousands of volunteers, will be giving away candy rolls and accepting donations for same.

They will be posted at street intersections, bus stops, train stations, public malls—wherever the public gathers—doing humanitarian work in support of the blind, visually impaired, and deaf. They will be brightly attired in typical Lions' gear—bright yellow aprons, caps and cannisters. Some may even be dressed like the King of the Jungle.

"Candy Day is the big Lions day of the year," said Eugene Fluegel of Lena, president of the Lions of Illinois Foundation, the primary fundraising and service affiliate of the Lions Clubs in Illinois. "Funds that we raise on Candy Day help to assure the continuation of our various humanitarian programs for the blind and deaf."

Fluegel listed these programs in part as

Camp Lions for blind and deaf children, the Lions Mobile Glaucoma Screening Unit, which travels the state to screen citizens for glaucoma, hypertension, and complications of diabetes; and the Mobile Hearing Unit, which screens for hearing problems.

The Lions also support an eye donor registry, which provides needed eye tissue for sight-restoring corneal transplants; a hearing aid bank, providing hearing aids for those in need; a social service and referrals department, which provides treatment and equipment for those who need them; and a used eyeglass collection for shipment to needy persons abroad.

Lions programs, which are coordinated and administered through the Lions of Illinois Foundation, include grants to Lions' approved agencies for the blind. Past awards have gone to Hadley School for the Blind; Leader Dogs; Dialogue Publications, a recorded braille large print magazine; the Illinois College of Optometry for low vision research; and the Eye Research Institute, one of the nation's leading eye research centers.

Since its origin in 1952, Lions Candy Day has grown from a modest program accounting for $11,000 to one that brings in more than $1 million annually. This year's Candy Day goal has been established at $1.4 million in contributions.

Funds obtained go in part for the support of club originated programs of support for the blind and deaf; the balance pays for various Lions Foundation-sponsored program.

The Lions of Illinois Foundation, 7321 W. Lake St., River Forest, is a charitable organization qualifying for tax deductible contributions under Internal Revenue Service guidelines. The foundation is registered with the Illinois Attorney General's office, and its various programs are funded primarily through Candy Day, with support also coming from contributions received from corporations and foundations.

By Evan Levine

"Love, American Style," which aired from 1969 to 1974 on ABC, was the show you watched when you were ten years old and wanted that first enticing whiff of adult romance. You weren't sure what was going on, but you knew it was more interesting than "The Brady Bunch."

You might have come away with the distinct impression that all adults did was cavort on waterbeds and chase each other around park benches. Each show featured a series of vignettes about love or, more often, lust. But the lust was innocent lust, even healthy all-American lust. While the show depicted a '60s sensibility of free love, swinging singles and go-go boots, the implied message was that all the women were at heart just nice girls who really wanted to be taken care of.

Often the women were helpless damsels or conniving temptresses. They always had the same goal: marriage. In one typical escapade Michele Lee convinced Rene Auberjonois that she was from Venus so he'd agree to marry her. In the end, everyone involved always discovered that a life of wine, women (or men) and song was empty, and that heck, old-fashioned values were the ones that really mattered.

The "Love, American Style" guest-star "repertory company" was the precursor of the "The Love Boat" guest list, or today's "Hotel" register. B-luminaries who got their 15 minutes of fame on the show included Phyllis Diller, the Lennon Sisters, Tiny Tim and Paul Lynde.

ABC aired a new version of the show in 1985, but viewers were faded. Why watch 10 minutes of innocuous romping when they could get that and more on a daytime soap?

Q: What hit '70s series was spun off from a skit on "Love, American Style"?

WILLIAMS
and the Happy Days" featuring Ron Howard and Annette Funicello, a girl called "Happy," .V.

Dear Mom,
Now that I'm in the 3rd grade
what are you going to do with all your free time?
Russell's mom goes to work
every fall. She's a Mex

She told Russell it is filling and pays a lot.
And then she told Russell
after all summer with Russell, going back to work was a real joy.
I know what she means.

Court decisions clear path for Heartland

by CHARLES JOHN-STON
Managing Editor

A major hurdle was overcome in the proposed Heartland settlement last week when Circuit Judge Alvin Singer entered an order granting judgment in favor of Lake County and the Village of Grayslake in the long pending Heartland state lawsuit.

Singer denied motions by William Alter, owner of extensive property adjacent to the Heartland property, and by ARF Landfill to intervene in the suit.

According to Lake County Board Chairman James Fields (R-Antioch), the court action was entered with the agreement of the county, the Village of Grayslake and the Village of Round Lake Park.

Round Lake Park had annexed the Heartland property in January of 1981. Allegations of serious deficiencies in the annexation agreement by the county and surrounding villages led to a series of legal battles that continued for almost seven years.

"The essence of Judge Singer's ruling confirms that the Round Lake Park annexation was void and that the county retains jurisdiction over the Heartland property," Fields said.

In a related move, Federal Dist. Court

Judge Brian Barnett Duff signed a federal court order which put into place the Heartland settlement agreement and dismissed with prejudice and without payment of damages the federal Heartland lawsuit.

The institutionalization of the agreement goes a long way towards finally settling the battle over Heartland. When this settlement proposal was announced in early September, county board members knew that there were several obstacles to overcome before it would be final. Now, the only crucial element left is for the sale of the Rte. 45 triangle to be closed. Gaylord Donnelley and George Ranney Jr. led a group of investors in negotiating the purchase of that property.

Grayslake Mayor Ed Schroeder called the court decisions "a step in the right direction." he said he was pleased that another obstacle had been overcome.

Round Lake Park Mayor George Scherer said, "We've (Round Lake Park) made a settlement agreement that is satisfactory. We are happy with this settlement."

Lake County State's Atty. Fred Foreman noted that, "When you're able to please most of the people, it's a good thing."

Fields concluded, "This long and often bitter battle is now over. I now look forward to the full implementation of the terms of the Heartland settlement agreement."

Babcox urges public to use crime safety tips

Lake County Sheriff Robert H. Babcox encourages public to support law enforcement.

"Public support and involvement are two of the most important crime-fighting tools of law enforcement," said Babcox.

According to Babcox, law enforcement officers work in an extremely complex environment dealing with a growing and highly sophisticated criminal element in the "war" against drugs, organized crime and commercial vice. "However, there are many things which the concerned citizen can do to help us," said Babcox. "For instance, simple precautions can help protect citizens and their property, such as:

Burglar proof your home with good locks, alarm security and watchful neighbors.

Stay alert and report all crimes and suspicious activity to the law enforcement agency serving you.

Get acquainted with your neighbors by helping each other look out for the other when away from home.

Other safety precautions are to form a neighborhood watch organization and to know where your children are at all times.

According to Babcox, the increasing crime rate and difficult economic times force the public to take some precautions into their own hands.

When Mark Roman of North Chicago booted two extra points in the Warhawks' 26-7 shocking upset over Stevenson, it marked the first time in 10 years that the Warhawks had tallied two, count 'em - two extra points in one game. One also has to wonder when was the last time the Warhawks scored 26 points.

Planning ahead

For those sports fans who like to plan well in advance, the ever-efficient IHSA has already distributed its post-season assignments.

In cross country, teams will be headed towards either the Crystal Lake Central or Libertyville regionals. Headed west to Crystal Lake are: Grant, Lake Zurich, Johnsburg, Round Lake and Wauconda. Going to Libertyville's regional will be: Warren, Carmel, Mundelein, North Chicago, and Stevenson.

In girls tennis, teams will be competing at Lake Forest and McHenry. At Lake Forest will be Warren and Stevenson. Antioch, Grant, Grayslake, Lake Zurich, Johnsburg, Carmel, Mundelein, Round Lake and Wauconda are all at McHenry.

Mundelein and Stevenson will be at the Barrington girls swimming regional.

In golf, the Lake Forest regional will be the site where most teams will be traveling to. Antioch, Grant, Grayslake, Warren, Carmel, Mundelein, Stevenson, Round Lake and Wauconda all will be seeking sectional berths at the Buffalo Grove Golf Course. Lake Zurich was assigned to the Jacobs regional, to be played at Pinecrest Golf Course in Huntley.

Planning ahead part II

Soccer teams generally will be starting post-season play in regional "D" of the Palatine regional. Antioch, Grayslake, Lake Zurich, Carmel, Mundelein, Round Lake and Wauconda all will be in that tourney.

Volleyball teams are spread out throughout Lake and McHenry counties for their regionals.

Mundelein, Carmel and North Chicago are joined by Libertyville at the Mundelein regional.

Johnsburg and Wauconda are at the Cary-Grove regional with Crystal Lake Central, Crystal Lake South, McHenry and Woodstock from the Fox Valley Conference.

Stevenson is at Highland Park and Lake Zurich is at Jacobs.

Antioch, Grant, Grayslake and Round Lake will all be at Antioch.

Regionals start in less than a month - Oct. 27.

Site switch

Just a reminder for Grayslake and Round Lake football fans that the site of this week's game has been changed. The Northwest Suburban Conference rivals will square off at 7:30 p.m. Oct. 2 at Round Lake. Extensive work at the Grayslake High field has limited the Rams to just two home games this year.

Over the top

No, Wauconda quarterback Mark Sutherland is not practicing for the high jump event for track and field season. Instead, the Bulldogs' signal caller is merely trying to do his best and elude Round Lake tacklers. Round Lake dominated contest, though, winning 29-0. Round Lake faces Grayslake at Round Lake while Wauconda is at Marengo. Both games are Oct. 2. — Photo by David Hurt.

Grant, Marian clash for first place

by STEVE PETERSON
Sports Editor

Grant's defense will be hoping to turn in another "Back to the Future" type performance when the Bulldogs travel to Woodstock to face powerful Marian Central Oct. 2.

A win for Grant would put the Bulldogs in the driver's seat for their second straight Northwest Suburban Conference title. Both teams come into the game for the top spot in the NWSC race with 3-1 overall records, 2-0 in league play. Game time at Marian's George Harding Field is 8 p.m.

"The defense made Grant 2-0 but everybody will be needed to beat Marian Central. The defense played a great game. We played defense tonight like we did in the past," Grant coach Mike Rogowski said after Grant's defense carried the day in a 9-0 win over Wauconda.

The Bulldogs will be hoping to stop a Hurricane offense that has blasted Marian's first two opponents by scoring 73 points. Grayslake, despite its best offensive showing of the year, was not in the ballpark against Marian, losing 51-22.

"I've scouted Grant and right now I'd have to give the edge to Marian Central. The way they played against us, they should be able to take it," Grayslake coach Harold Jahnke said.

Although Marian Central quarterback Jim Hartlieb threw for four touchdown passes, against Grayslake and the Hurricanes No. 1 running back, Tom Parsley, is out for the season with an ankle injury, Rogowski said his team will not key on Hartlieb.

Rogowski had several heroes to point to on defense, which scored the game's first two points on a first quarter safety for a 2-0 lead. The secondary picked off Wauconda quarterback Mark Southerland's passes as Glen Glashagel and Jerry Mazur each picked off Wauconda passes. Linebacker Troy Peterson, a 5-10 160 pound junior, was noted for a strong performance by Rogowski. Nose guard John Mazur, linebacker Kurt Rous and defensive tackle Greg Gipson all turned in stellar performances.

For most of the first half, the game could have made HBO's "Not So Great Moments In Sports" as both teams struggled to get an offense going.

Grant began its march to the only touchdown of the game at the Wauconda 42. Running plays brought the ball up to the 37. That's when Grant quarterback Jim McGeever found Frystak open in the secondary for a short toss. Frystak did the rest, eluding Wauconda tackles en route to the TD.

But that was all the Grant offense could muster.

What's the call?

Mustang, Sequoits' defenses clash in key NSC contest

Two teams coming off strong defensive showings will clash when Mundelein travels to Antioch for a North Suburban Conference battle Oct. 3.

Both the Mustangs and the hosts Sequoits won last week to even their records at 2-2. Another win could mean momentum and a possible first-division finish for the winner. Game time in Antioch is 2 p.m.

"It's a key game for both teams," Antioch coach Steve Wapon said.

Antioch is coming off a 13-7 win at Zion-Benton while the Mustangs upset Niles North 13-6 at home last week.

"They're huge. They have extremely good size. We expect a hard-hitting game," Wapon said.

"I expect the same thing as Niles North. They throw two offenses at you the shotgun and then they put a new quarterback in and a few new players and use the flanker I. We will have to prepare for both offenses," Mundelein coach Gary Heifner said.

Mundelein will, then, have to stop Antioch's switching qb's - James Keim and Jon Debernardis. Keim scored the winning touchdown on a one-yard run with five minutes left in the game.

When the Mustangs face Antioch, it should be the first time in two weeks the flu bug will not be a factor. Some 23 varsity players were infected with the bug two weeks ago and a game at Zion-Benton had to be postponed two games. Three players were still affected when the Niles North game began, Heifner said.

Mundelein uses a conventional one-quarterback system to run its offense, but John Bagley was more than adequate last week. Bagley threw for two touchdown passes to account for both Mundelein scores. A 22-yarder to Jeff Fuller in the first quarter gave Mundelein a 7-6 lead. Later, Bagley burned the Niles North secondary when he found Chip Sidel open for an 80-yard touchdown strike.

"When the chips were down, he came through real well. For a junior in his fourth game, he did real well Saturday," Heifner said.

While Antioch features all-NSC David Wick out of its backfield, Mundelein can counter with Rob Porcelius. Porcelius, a senior, netted almost 10 yards a carry against the Vikings, chalking up 109 yards in 11 carries.

Graham Hass, playing in his first game as a tailback, had 78 yards in 21 carries.

"Antioch has very good receivers and a good running back," Heifner said.

One of the keys to Antioch's win was aggressive play on defense. Three defenders

Scott Gooch, Doug Slazes and Brendan Hannigan all picked off passes from Zion-Benton quarterback Gary Scott.

Antioch also shut down Zion's main weapon, running back Don Farmer.

"All four of our defensive line players managed to take on some of their tough blockers," Antioch defensive coordinator Mike Gordy said.

Antioch's defensive ends led the team in tackles. Larry Miller had six solos and three assists while Mike Zolna had six solos and two assists. Rod Hoerle blocked a Zion-Benton punt and was credited with an Antioch safety in the first half.

"I was pleased with our fine defensive play in containing Zion's speed," Wapon said.

Offensively, the game was tight until Antioch scored its winning and only touchdown with just over nine minutes remaining in the game.

Keim blasted over from one yard out for an 11-7 lead. Wick then tallied for a two-point conversion.

Wapon noted the strong play of Antioch's special teams and kicking game. Gooch booted a 29-yard field goal in the second quarter.

Zion scored when Scott tallied on a 13-yard run in the second quarter.

Sophomore quarterback Debernardis was two-for-seven passing for 23 yards, both completions caught by Hannigan.

Hannigan, a fullback, proved that teams can hurt themselves by keying on tailback Wick. Hannigan tallied 80 yards in seven carries, an 11.4 average. Kurt Hansen added 26 yards in seven tries.

The offensive line of center Erik Shoemaker, guards Mike Golebiowski and Ed Rosquist and tackles Chad Modra and Jeremy Richter all did their jobs by opening up holes for running backs.

Warren's playoff future now on line as 'Devils host ZeeBees

The way most Warren Blue Devils football fans and Reggie Hughes views the first four weeks of the North Suburban Conference season, Warren is just two minutes, one second away from a 4-0 record.

Instead, the 2-2 Blue Devils will be battling to keep their playoff hopes alive when they host Zion-Benton. Game time in Gurnee is 8 p.m.

Warren will be coming off its second last-minute loss in three games, a 28

Reggie Hughes

21 defeat at the hands of Lake Forest.

"We've gotten to the point where we get to the end of the game and we have a tendency to get conservative on offense. Then we have to punt the ball and hoping for the best," Hughes said.

Lake Forest was trailing Warren 21-20 and less than two minutes remaining when Scouts quarterback Matt Sloan launched a 62-yard touchdown pass to wide receiver John Jackson.

The late strike also hurt Warren in its other loss, to Libertyville two weeks earlier.

Hughes said the problem stems from having to use the same people in the secondary as the offensive skill positions.

"We're playing our best people in the secondary. They also run motion (on pass plays) and bring in plays."

The defeat at Lake Forest ruined an excellent showing from Warren quarterback Derek Shelton. Shelton completed 16 of 27 passes for 199 yards and had three touchdown strikes.

"Shelton has really risen to the point of leadership," Hughes said. Shelton has 700 yards in passing and leads the team with 170 rushing yards.

Part of Warren's problems on offense started with running back Mike Wagner was injured with an ankle injury before the Libertyville game.

Good news about prostate cancer.

More than 90,000 men were diagnosed last year with prostate cancer—and more than 26,000 died. But, prostate cancer can be cured if detected early.

The good news for Lake County is new ultrasound detection equipment in the area—now available as part of a comprehensive program for the evaluation of prostate diseases and disorders.

The program offers complete diagnostic and treatment capabilities, including biopsies which can be performed without the need for hospitalization.

Rams, Wauconda seek elusive first victory

Grayslake and Wauconda will both be trying to gain the same thing in Northwest Suburban Conference games this weekend.

If not a win to either a) go over the .500 mark in league play or b) keep the goal of a .500 season alive or c) win the first game of the year, then to gain some self-respect following NWSC losses last week is the top goal of the NSWC teams.

Grayslake faces Round Lake in the historically intense rivalry at Round Lake Oct. 2. The game, though, will be another one of the Rams' "Home Away From Home" contests as Grayslake will be the home team. Game time is 8 p.m.

"We're pleased with the way the offense moved the ball," Grayslake coach Harold Jahnke said.

But the defense, well, Marian Central's 51-22 win coupled with 244 passing yards by Hurricanes' quarterback Jim Hartlieb certainly do give Rams fans reason to be concerned going into the game against the Panthers.

"We've got to tighten up the outside game," Jahnke said.

For Grayslake (0-4, 0-2), Jason Samuelson has been the leading threat on offense in the first four games. Samuelson racked up 76 yards in 12 tries against Marian Central.

Grayslake was victimized last week by four touchdown passes by Marian Central quarterback Jim Hartlieb. The first two Hartlieb TD strikes, a 24 yarder to Gregg Penza and a 15 yarder to Gregg Geils, staked the hosts to a 16-0 lead.

Grayslake trimmed the margin to 16-8 when Jon Floyd scored his first of two touchdowns, from two yards out, in the second quarter.

Marian answered by scoring the next three times over the second and third quarters. Hartlieb passed for two of the three scores and set one up with an interception.

With Marian ahead 30-8, Floyd scored his second touchdown of the game, from four yards out with 1:54 left in the third quarter. Samuelson scored the Rams' final touchdown of the night in the fourth quarter from six yards out with just over nine minutes remaining.

For Wauconda, the numbers may finally be turning in the Bulldogs' favor as they prepare for an Oct. 2 battle at Marengo.

"We'll have all 22 players back for Marengo," Wauconda coach Fred Loffredo said after his team lost 9-0 at Grant.

The absence of a center and linemen showed in the loss to Grant. A high snap from center led to a first quarter Grant safety that gave the hosts a 2-0 lead.

The upstart Bulldogs from Wauconda, though, gave the defending league champions fits as Wauconda stayed in the game.

"We were keying on the option the whole game. The defense did a super job," Loffredo said.

The only breakdown came in the second quarter.

Grant quarterback Jim McGeever found Kevin Frystak open in the Wauconda secondary. Frystak then outraced the Wauconda defense for a 37-yard touchdown.

"We had a linebacker on Frystak and Frystak was just too fast," Loffredo said.

Garbage bids

All the bids on the garbage collection of the Village of Paddock Lake, ranging from $59,000 to $139,000 have been referred to committee.

Patriots hope next upset goes in their favor

"If we play like this against Lake Forest, we will lose 80-0," Stevenson coach Bill Mitz said.

Mitz made that prediction moments after the Patriots lost in an upset 26-7 at North Chicago. The Pats, now 2-2, are hoping to pull off an upset of their own against the North Suburban Conference leading Scouts Oct. 3. Game time at Stevenson is 8 p.m.

Against North Chicago, the Patriots gained a 7-7 tie in the second quarter when quarterback Jim Neary tossed an eight-yard touchdown pass to Don Foote. The fourth-down play was a controversial one, as North Chicago argued long and hard that the receiver never had control of the ball.

"He dropped the ball," North Chicago coach Wayne Fiedler said.

From that point on, the day was one the Patriot offense would just as soon forget. North Chicago's defense, featuring eight players within five yards of the line of scrimmage, dared Neary to pass. And when he did, the North Chicago secondary was right there. Anthony Burton and James Stovall both picked off passes. Both interceptions set up touchdown drives.

Burton's interception set up North Chicago's first touchdown drive. After starting at its 22, the hosts marched the 78 yards in nine plays. Quarterback Jeff Patterson, after completing two long passes, plunged over from the one for a 7-0 lead.

After Stevenson tied the score, the Warhawks answered right back. A 15-play drive was capped off by a four-yard touchdown toss from Patterson to Burton. The extra point try was blocked and North Chicago led 13-7.

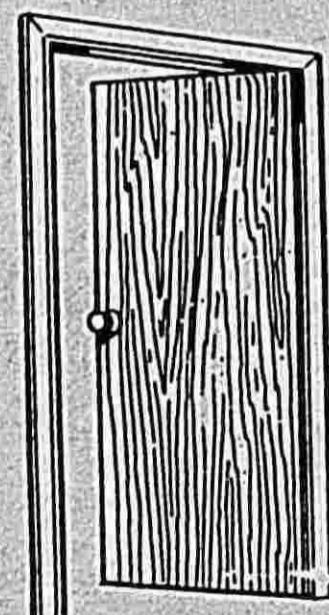

Stevenson was its own worst enemy on the march as a roughing the kicker call when North Chicago had a third-and-five at its 24.

North Chicago had the ball at the Stevenson 37 following Stovall's interception.

Bears, Panthers shoot for 2-1 going into weekend games

An energized Lake Zurich Bears football team tightened things up in the Northwest Suburban Conference with a convincing 21-0 victory over the Round Lake Panthers.

The Bears' running game was key to the victorious effort, which left both Lake Zurich and Round Lake with conference records of 1-1.

It was a tight defensive game through the first half, which ended 7-0 with Lake Zurich leading.

In the second half, the Bears seemed to run at will against the Panthers. Round Lake lost a good opportunity to get back into the game when quarterback Todd Collis engineered an impressive drive only to be intercepted in the end zone with the score 14-0.

Lake Zurich will come off its impressive win to play the Johnsburg Skyhawks at Johnsburg at 1 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 3.

Again, both teams come into the game with a 1-1 record, but Lake Zurich's offense seems to have come together in a big way.

Round Lake will be in the unusual position of being the visitor at its own field as the Panthers meet the Grayslake Rams at 8 p.m. Friday, Oct. 2. This just doesn't seem to be the Rams season. Their home football field is being repaired, so they have to play their home games away.

Grayslake is carrying an uninspired 0-2 conference record into the game. The Panthers will be looking to get back on track after being mauled by Lake Zurich. The Rams are looking simply to get on track.

Carmel hoping to regain consistency in its offense

The Carmel Corsairs will be at St. Joseph on Saturday, Oct. 3, trying to up their overall record to 2-3 after a heartbreak loss to Joliet Catholic on Sept. 25.

The Corsairs lost to Joliet Catholic 12-7 after having the thoughts of overcoming the underdog title given to them before the onset of the game.

After a scoreless first quarter, Joliet Catholic attempted to score first with a field goal from the 13-yard line with about five minutes left in the second quarter. Joliet Catholic started on the Corsair 38 and moved the ball down to the five-yard-line.

The Corsairs lost to Joliet Catholic 12-7 after having the thoughts of overcoming the underdog title given to them before the onset of the game.

The game was quiet until there was 6:03 left in the third quarter, and a scoring boom hit the field.

Joliet Catholic had driven the ball to their own 48-yard-line and failed on a third down bomb. Joliet Catholic punted on fourth down to Corsair Matt Simmons who swept to his left and pushed through for an 88-yard touchdown punt return.

Skyhawks aim for four solid quarters against Lake Zurich

Johnsburg will be hoping for four solid quarters of football, not three, when the Skyhawks host Lake Zurich Oct. 3.

In a 27-14 loss to Marengo, Johnsburg trailed by just one point at 15-14 after three quarters. But that was before Marengo's Joe Koester broke loose for an 83-yard touchdown scamper in the opening minutes of the fourth quarter.

"We had them pinned in their own end and had some new personnel in the game. When you have an 83-yard run, there is more than one mistake. Up until then, the momentum was shifting toward our side and we thought we were going to come back and win. It was still anybody's game. But that run broke our backs," Johnsburg coach Mike Roberts said.

The Bears could enter into a tie for second place in the league with a victory at Johnsburg. Roberts thinks a win for his club could propel the Hawks back into contention.

Huskies select Wittum

Tom Wittum, Grayslake High School assistant football coach will be inducted into the Northern Illinois University Hall of Fame Oct. 9.

Tom Wittum

A banquet will precede the Huskies' 80th Homecoming game Oct. 10 against the University of Toledo. New inductees will be honored at halftime of the contest.

Wittum was an assistant coach at Carmel High School for Boys in Mundelein last year before returning to Grayslake this fall. Previously, Wittum had been head coach at GCHS.
